DR. LIVINGSTONE'S EXPLORATIONS.

GREAT BRITAIN.

DR. LIVINGSTONE'S EXPLORATIONS.

LONDON, June 13.—Bombay telegram received here to-day contains information from Livingstone, derived from Arab sources, which shows him to be well. Stanley is at Ugogo, and is coming to the coast with Livingstone's letters. It appears that Livingstone traversed the north end of Lake Zanganyaka on his way from Monyema to Ujiji, where, obtaining stores, he returned to Unyanyembe. He refuses to leave the country, intending to explore an underground path between Unyanyembe and Nyassa. It is affirmed that the river Rusye flows into Lake Zanganyaka, and hence that Zanganyaka is not connected with the Nile.

THE ALABAMA CLAIMS.

LONDON, June 13.—In the House of Commons this afternoon Horsman gave notice that he would soon ask Gladstone whether the documents to be presented to Parliament relative to the Alabama claims would explain why no record was kept of the proceedings of the sessions of the Joint High Commission, and also if they would contain any communications wherein the American Government asserted that this withdrawal of indirect claims was only a matter of understanding, and not of agreement.

THE SAN JUAN BOUNDARY.

LONDON, June 13.—At the sessions of the House of Commons to-night, Gladstone, in reply to a question of Corrance, said nothing official had been received by the Government in relation to the San Juan boundary question now before Emperor William, of Germany, for his decision.

THE GENEVA ARBITRATION.

In answer to an inquiry from Sir Henry Ibbetson, Gladstone said the Government of the United States declined to become a party to the application for an adjournment of the meeting of the Board of Arbitration at Geneva, as was proposed by Her Majesty's Government.

Otway asked the Premier if, in case the arbitration of the Alabama claims failed, and no sane man could doubt that it would, the convention for the settlement of the San Juan boundary question, which was provided for by the treaty of Washington, would be maintained.

Gladstone replied in the affirmative.

Viscount Bury asked if it was true that the American Government would oppose to the utmost any effort by the British Government to submit its argument at Geneva on the 15th inst. under protest; and if this was true, how it was proposed to recover the rights of Great Britain.

The questions were not answered by Gladstone, who said that he would require notice to be given before doing so.

Another statement from Granville is expected in the House of Lords to-morrow.

MEXICO.

THE OCCUPATION OF MONTEREY.

MATAMORAS, June 12.—Trevino claims to have captured 1,600 prisoners at the battle of Monterey. Private letters from Monterey state that fifteen persons, including men, women and children, were massacred during the occupation of that city by Revueltas.

A Brownsville special says that Correlia is disheartened, and admits the destruction of the army sent by the Government against the Northern frontier. The triumph at Monterey is regarded as of great importance to the revolutionists.

SPAIN.

KING AMADEUS' TROUBLES.

MADRID, June 13.—It is stated the Ministry are not in harmony with the King on certain measures. They will tender their resignation.

MADRID, June 13.—The difficulty in the Government was caused by King Amadeus disapproving of measures adopted by the Cortes and supported by the Cabinet.

STORMS.

Milford, Pa.

PORT JARVIS, N. Y., June 13.—A gale of wind passed over Milford, Pa., yesterday, unroofing houses, uprooting trees and killing a number of cattle.

BINGHAMPTON, N. Y.

BINGHAMPTON, June 13.—A terrific gale, accompanied by rain and hail, passed over this city yesterday afternoon. The menagerie and aquarium tents of John Robinson's circus were blown down and the wagons tipped over while the tents were full of people. Several persons were injured, but not seriously. The crowd of terribly frightened people, in a drenching storm, amidst upturned cages of roaring animals, presented a heartrending scene. During the storm the lightning struck the spire of the Congregational church, the Fourth ward school house, the stack of Blanchard & Bartlett's sash and door factory, the residence of Vincent Whitney, a slaughter house, and several trees within the corporate limits. A number of frames of unfinished buildings and many trees were blown down.

PAWLENVILLE, N. Y.

KINGSTON, N. Y., June 13.—During the storm yesterday afternoon, the school house in Pawlenville, in this county, was struck by lightning and a little girl named Merritt instantly killed. Several other children were stunned. The storm caused great damage throughout the county.

INDIANA.

CINCINNATI, June 13.—A special from Richmond, Ind., to the Gazette, says a heavy thunder storm passed north of there about dark this evening, and that the storm of last Friday did great damage in that county.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Y. M. C. A. Convention—International Musical Festival.

LOWELL, June 13.—At the morning business session of the Y. M. C. A. Convention, the President nominated a standing Committee on Associations, and the business Executive Committee reported devotional and open air meetings and resolutions. The first topic of discussion was, "How can association work in the States and provinces be made more effectually organized and more successfully prosecuted?" After an hour's discussion the President announced the second question, "How should Bible classes be conducted in our associations, and for what object?"

A prayer was offered up on the termination of the debate. The committees on devotional and open air meetings and on business, made reports, which were accepted. The convention adjourned until 3 P. M.

A large delegation of singers arrived from Wisconsin to-day. The car which brought them bore the inscription, "Wisconsin's World's Jubilee Chorus."

TENNESSEE.

A Planter Killed.

MEMPHIS, June 13.—On Tuesday evening the body of Billy Rawes, a young planter, was found in a cotton field near Bell's station, on the Memphis and Somerville Railroad, with his head crushed from a blow with a hoe. Suspicion pointed to Martin Rawes, a colored man, who had disappeared. Some citizens went in search of Martin, and found him at work near the station. On being arrested, he confessed having killed the deceased, but stated that Billy and he had quarreled, and the latter had started to get a gun, when he struck him with a hoe. The ground where the deceased was found bore evidence of a fearful struggle. His statement is believed, and the infuriated friends of young Hawes were with difficulty restrained from lynching the negro; but better counsel prevailed, and he was taken to Brownsville and jailed. The deceased and his murderer had been raised together, and had always been warmly attached to each other.

NEW YORK.

The Labor Excitement.

A Heavy Suit Against Gould.

J. G. BENNETT'S FUNERAL.

NEW YORK, June 13, 1872.

THE LABOR TROUBLES.

The Executive Committee of the marble cutters report that all but three shops have acceded to the demands of the men.

A number of strikers to-day threatened Steinway's piano manufactory, but were dispersed by the police.

The iron and metal workers struck to-day, and several firms conceded to their demands for eight hours and twenty per cent. advance on piece work. It is said they number 15,000, and all the workmen of this city, Brooklyn, Williamsburg and Hoboken have struck. This is the most formidable strike yet made. They are thoroughly organized, have a large amount of funds in the treasury, and will probably be successful. The wheelwrights and blacksmiths also struck, and but two large shops were at work to-day.

The attempted riot at Steinway's piano factory to-day was promptly suppressed, the strikers fleeing very rapidly before the clubs of the police. Nearly four hundred men were at work at Steinway's to-day, and several other factories were in operation under the old regime.

The coach painters have organized a union, and their strike bids fair to succeed. The German cabinet makers were also successful. The workmen of Singer's sewing machine works propose a co-operative union. They have sent a committee of ten to Bridgeport, Ct., to confer with the workmen in Howe's and Wheeler & Wilson's works, and to obtain assistance. The Metal Union League promise pecuniary assistance to them.

HEAVY SUIT AGAINST GOULD.

The Tribune will announce to-morrow morning that in consequence of the result of the investigation into the affairs of the Erie Railway, instituted by the reform directors in March, and in progress ever since, the attorneys of the road, Barlow, Laroque and McFarland, have instituted a suit against Jay Gould, and served on him a summons for relief amounting, it is said, to at least six millions of dollars. This suit is the precursor of about one hundred and ten similar suits to be based on the results of the same investigation. The complaint in the present suit is very voluminous, and will be completed for several days. It is understood that it charges Gould, as President, with awarding numerous fraudulent contracts to Gould as an individual. Other charges of mismanagement of funds and property of the company will also be contained in it.

FUNERAL OF JAMES GORDON BENNETT.

The funeral of the late James Gordon Bennett took place this morning from his late residence, on Fifth avenue. Among the mourners were Mayor Hall, Horace Greeley, Judge Bedford, James Brooks and a host of other celebrities. The funeral ceremonies were performed by Vicar Gen. Storrs, who spoke feelingly of the goodness of heart and charitable disposition of the deceased. The funeral cortege, which consisted of a large number of carriages, started from the late residence of the deceased at eleven o'clock, and, preceded by a detachment of police, passed down Broadway to Greenwood cemetery. The streets along the route of the possession were lined with spectators, and flags throughout the city were hung at half mast.

DOMESTIC TROUBLES.

Emil L. Andrea, who shot his wife to-day, it appears, was thoroughly convinced that she had been unfaithful to him, a man named Tarnier, from Chicago, having been living with her during the absence of Andrea. He handed a separation paper to her to-day for her signature, both their little children being present, but she fled from him. He pursued, caught her at the corner of First avenue and Fifteenth street, put a pistol to her ear, and shot her dead. He stood still until the police arrested him. He does not regret the act, but has requested his friends to send his children home to France.

CUBAN FILLIBUSTERING.

It is not credited by the United States officials here that any Cuban fillibustering expedition lately left this port.

STOCK EXCHANGE.

A petition is circulating to close the Stock Exchange from July 3 to July 8.

ST. LOUIS.

Convention of American Car Builders—The Saengerfest.

ST. LOUIS, June 12.—The sixth annual Convention of the American Car Builders' Association convened here to-day. A large number of roads east and west were represented, President M. N. Andrews presiding. Quite a number of reports of great interest to railroad companies and car builders were read and discussed, and many mechanics and artisans were present with new inventions and specimen work. The New York and eastern delegates came through on the new Wagner car, assigned for the purpose by the Wagner Car Company. Additional delegates arrived to-day, and the session promises to be very interesting.

THE SAENGERFEST.

Notwithstanding a heavy rain storm this afternoon, and continuous rain since, the Saengerfest Hall was densely packed to-night with the most brilliant audience ever assembled in St. Louis. Fully fifteen thousand people crowded into the building. Most of the aisles had been furnished with chairs, and nearly all the standing room was occupied. This was totally unexpected. The turn-out indicates great interest in the Saengerfest, and insures its success beyond question. A concert was rendered by fifteen hundred male singers and an orchestra of one hundred and sixty-three musicians.

CINCINNATI.

CINCINNATI, June 13.—At the Miami University commencement at Oxford, to-day, there were eighteen graduates, twelve of whom were in the regular course.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

—The Berkley trial, in St. Louis, was closed on Wednesday, and the Court acquitted the accused.

—The American Railway Master Mechanics' Association have selected Baltimore as the place for the next annual meeting.

—The cholera has appeared in Southern Russia. The vessels from Russian ports on the Black Sea are quarantined at Constantinople.

—A repair train of the telegraph lines at Bergen, New York, was run into by an Erie freight train. Edward Vanness was killed, and several others injured.

—The details of the floods near Prague state that the water poured over the country, sweeping everything before it. The fertile districts were devastated and a number of villages swept away. The loss of life is appalling, the number of persons who perished being estimated at seven hundred.

—Paterson, New Jersey, was visited last Wednesday evening with a severe thunder storm, accompanied by a hurricane. Merrill's flouring mill was struck by the full force of the wind, and almost entirely demolished. A new three-story frame building was blown down, and many buildings unroofed and otherwise damaged. The losses are supposed to be large. The Erie track was obstructed, and trains were delayed one hour.

—A letter from Moscow, referring to the reception of General Sherman there by the Czar, says that when the autocrat of Russia learned of the General's presence in that city he prolonged his stay expressly to give him an informal reception. The Czar greeted Sherman with great cordiality; but when Minister Curtin presented Lieutenant Grant, the Emperor did not give his hand to Mr. Grant, and appeared cool in manner. The correspondent argues from this that Alexis' reception in Washington is not quite forgotten by the Czar.

The Vice Presidency.

Wilson's Letter of Acceptance.

SOUTHERN FORTS REINFORCED.

The Supplemental Treaty Article.

WASHINGTON, June 13, 1872.

SENATOR WILSON'S LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE.

The following is Senator Wilson's letter of acceptance of the Philadelphia nomination:

Washington, June 13.—To Honorable Thos. Settle, and others, President and Vice Presidents of the National Republican Convention held at Philadelphia—Gentlemen: Your note of the 10th instant, conveying to me the action of the Convention in placing my name in nomination for the office of Vice President of the United States, is before me. I need not give you an assurance of my grateful appreciation of the high honor conferred on me by this action of the fifth National Convention of the Republican party. Sixteen years ago, in the same city, was held the first meeting of men who, amid the darkness and doubt of that hour of slaveholding ascendancy and aggression, had assembled in national convention to confer with each other on the exigencies to which that fearful domination had brought their country. After full conference, the highest point of resolve they could reach, the most they dared recommend, was an avowed purpose to prohibit the extension of slavery in Territories. Last week the same party met, by its representatives from thirty-seven States and ten Territories, at the same great centre of wealth, intelligence and power, to review the past, take note of the present, and indicate its line of action for the future. As typical facts and headlands of the nation's recent history, there sat on its platform, taking prominent and honorable part in its proceedings, admitted on terms of perfect equality to the leading hotels of the city, not only colored representatives of a race which were ten years ago in abject slavery, but one of the oldest and most prominent of the once despised abolitionists, to whom was accorded as no other the warmest demonstrations of popular regard and esteem—an ovation, not to him alone, but to the cause he had so ably and for so many years represented, and to men and women, living and dead, who had toiled through long years of obloquy and sacrifice for the glorious fruition of that hour. It hardly needed the brilliant summary of its platform to set forth its illustrious achievements. The very presence of those men was alone significant of the victories already achieved, progress already made, and the great distance which the nation had traveled between the years 1856 and 1872. But grand as has been its record, the Republican party rests not on its past alone. It looks to the future and grapples with its problems of duty and danger. It proposes as objects of its immediate accomplishment, complete liberty and exact equality for all, the enforcement of the recent amendments to the National Constitution, reform in the civil service, the national domain to be set apart for homes for the people, the adjustment of duties on imports so as to secure remunerative wages to labor, extension of bounties to all soldiers and sailors who the line of duty become disabled, continued and careful encouragement and protection of voluntary immigration, and guarding with zealous care the rights of adopted citizens, abolition of the franking privilege, and a speedy reduction of the rates of postage, reduction of the national debt and rates of interest, and a resumption of specie payment, encouragement of American commerce and of ship building, and suppression of violence and protection of the ballot box. It also placed on record the opinion and purposes of the party in favor of amnesty, against all forms of repudiation, and endorsed the humane and peaceful policy of the administration in regard to the Indians; but while clearly defining and distinctly announcing the policy of the Republican party on these questions of practical legislation and administration, the Convention did not ignore the great serial of problems which are pressing their claims for solution and which demand most careful study and wise consideration. Foremost stands the labor question. Concerning the relations of capital and labor, the Republican party accepts the duty of so shaping legislation as to secure full protection and the amplest field for capital and for labor, the creation of capital; the largest opportunities and just share of mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization; to woman and her new demands it extends grateful recognition and proffers its most respectful inquiry; it recognizes her noble devotion to country and freedom, welcomes her admission to wider fields of usefulness, and commends her demands for additional rights to the calm and careful consideration of the nation, to guard well what has already been secured, to work out faithfully and wisely what is now in hand, and to consider questions which are looming up to view but a litte way before us.

The Republican party is to-day what it was in the gloomy years of slavery, rebellion and reconstruction—a national necessity. It appeals, therefore, for support to the patriotic and liberty-loving, to the just and humane, to all who would dignify labor, to all who would educate, elevate and lighten the burdens of the sons and daughters of toil. With its great record, with work still to be done under the great soldier, whose historic renown and whose successful administration for the last three years begot such popular confidence, the Republiban party may confidently, in the language of the Convention you represent, start on a new march to victory.

Having accepted, thirty-six years ago, the distinguishing doctrines of the Republican party of to-day, having during the years of that period, for their advancement, subordinated all other issues, acting in and co-operating with political organizations with whose leading doctrines I sometimes had neither sympathy nor belief, having labored incessantly for many years to found and build up the Republican party, and having during its existence taken an humble part in its ground work, I gratefully accept the nomination thus tendered, and shall endeavor, if it shall be ratified by the people, faithfully to perform the duties it imposes.

Respectfully yours,
HENRY WILSON.

THE SUPPLEMENTAL TREATY ARTICLE.

The following is virtually the concluding paragraph of the supplemental treaty article adopted by the Senate: "In consideration, etc., the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate thereof, consents to the establishment of a new feature in international laws for the guidance of both nations, to the effect that neither contracting powers shall be held responsible for the acts of its citizens as against either Government in favor of any belligerent power with which either Government may be at war, and consents that he will make no claim on the part of the United States in respect to indirect damages, as aforesaid, before the Tribunal of Arbitration at Geneva."

A LUNATIC'S ECCENTRICITIES.

This morning a tall, wild-looking man was noticed walking about the lower rooms of the Executive Mansion, and officer Kearney, regarding him as a suspicious character, questioned him. He stated that his name was Richard P. Jones, from Prince George county, Md., and demanded to see the President. On being told President Grant was absent from the city, he demanded that he should be telegraphed for at once, as he (Jones) had whipped the world and could not rest satisfied until he had whipped the President, who ought to be ousted and the Pope of Rome put in his place. He was arrested.

PREPARED FOR EMERGENCIES.

The War Department has taken the precaution to reinforce all the forts on the southern and Gulf coasts with the newest pattern and largest calibre of ordnance, while the Navy Department has accumulated large supplies of naval stores at all naval stations on the southern and Gulf coasts, in accordance with the desire of the Government to be prepared for all emergencies.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

Westerly winds and clear and clearing weather for the Middle States on Friday, and for New England on Friday afternoon and night, and from the Ohio Valley northward and westward; cloudy weather and areas of rain for the South Atlantic States, but thence to the Ohio and Lower Mississippi valleys clear and clearing weather and westerly winds.

INDIAN COMMISSION APPOINTED.

The Secretary of the Interior has appointed the following Commission to visit the hostile tribes of Indians demonstrating against the Union Pacific Railroad: Gen. B. R. Cowan, John L. Delano and J. W. Thaw.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, June 11, 1872.

THE LEGISLATIVE WORK OF THE SEASON.

The present Congress has been so obstructed in the Senate by Sumner and Schurz in their inauguration of long political debates, that but few laws of national importance have been enacted. The tariff bill, which at the same time also reduces the expenditures for the internal revenue, is about the only bill of great importance which was enacted. It reduces taxation to the amount of fifty-three millions of dollars, and consolidates the various collection districts, so that the expenditures for the collection of internal revenue will be greatly diminished. It also provides that seventy cents a gallon shall be paid on distilled spirits, in lieu of all other taxes, which is satisfactory to the distillers, and at the same time of no injury to the revenue. There are some other efforts in the right direction, but very few that challenge public consideration. A prolongation of the session would have led to no tangible result, and therefore the call of the extra session soon, would only involve the country in additional expense, without producing any adequate results.

GRANT'S LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE.

Of course the telegraph will have informed your readers in advance of the text of this letter; it is therefore needless to quote it here. The impression of all thoughtful men is that it is a beautiful, concise and statesmanlike document. A grave study of Grant's message has convinced me that he has the faculty of saying more in fewer words than any statesman now living. His words are as full of meaning as a nut of meat, and the Republican party need never be afraid that he will either do, say or write an injudicious thing.

STATE DELEGATIONS CALLED.

A number of the delegations from the Philadelphia Convention have called upon the President, and they expressed to him and all with whom they conversed the utmost confidence that their work would be endorsed by the people in November next.

The Republican party is harmonious, and the departure of the satisfied elements have imparted to the organization a homogenuity which it never had and which has all the evidence of political success.

THE PHILADELPHIA PLATFORM AND THE GERMAN PRESS.

An intellectual gentleman who reads carefully the German press informs me that the declaration of principles adopted at Philadelphia commands the hearty concurrence of the German Republican press. The planks in favor of civil service reform, the protection of immigrants, and the hearty sympathy expressed for the laboring movement are calculated to secure the good will and allegiance of the German masses. These are the questions in which they are most vitally interested and upon which the Cincinnati platform is silent. On the whole the political situation never had a more favorable appearance for the success of the Republican ticket than it has to-day.

RUMORS ABOUT SECRETARY BOUTWELL.

The assertions of some of the journals that Boutwell is desirous to secure Henry Wilson's place in the Senate in case he can secure the nomination is certainly authorized by him. It is the opinion of his best friends that it is alike for his interests and that of the country that he should remain in the Treasury Department to finish the work which he has so ably begun; and that at the second term of his labors he will be rewarded for his pre-eminent services and integrity with the highest gift of the American people. Let him stand by his guns for four years more and he will be Grant's natural successor.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Henry Wilson is expected to take the stump and will no doubt do good service in the campaign.

The Senate confirmed the nominations of the President as follows, viz:

Thomas B. Van Bunn, of New Jersey, Commissioner to International Exposition at Vienna; Julius A. Skilton, of Louisiana, Consul General at the City of Mexico; Wm. H. Allen, Surveyor of Customs. Perham.

The Convention closed with cheers for Grant and Wilson.

Diss Debor Secretary. A straight out Liberal electoral ticket was nominated, as follows: Electors at large, Col. Ben. Smith, of Kanawha, and Jas A. Hutchinson, of Wood; 1st district, W. P. Hubbard; 2d, Judge John W. Kennedy; 3d, Judge H. J. Gammel. M., for consultation for such action as the situation may require. The dispatch states that the circular has been sent to two hundred prominent men.

Louisiana (Pinchbeck) Republican Convention.

NEW ORLEANS, June 3.—The Pinchbeck Republican Convention which recently assembled at Baton Rouge on June 9th, having passed resolutions declaring for Governor Warmoth, he writes a letter declining the nomination of the Baton Rouge Convention. This action is taken because of the proposed fusion of the two wings of the Republican party in support of General Grant, which the Governor opposes. He still declares his allegiance to the Cincinnati nominees.

Delegates to the Baltimore Convention.

BOSTON, June 13.—The Democrats of the Fifth Massachusetts District, in convention in Salem to-day, elected Chas. P. Thompson, of Gloucester, and C. O. Morse, of Newburyport, delegates to Baltimore. The majority for Wilson, Republican, in Oregon, is about one thousand, and a Republican majority on joint ballot in the Legislature.

LOUISVILLE.

The Exposition.

LOUISVILLE, June 13.—The rapid construction of the Louisville Exposition building and the plans of the directors are objects of much congratulation among the people of this city. The original intention was to furnish the exhibition with products of home industry, but funds were so liberally subscribed and so much space called for by exhibitors, that the directors determined to erect the largest and most complete building of the kind ever built in the United States and make the Exposition at once national. The building is intended, when fully completed, to occupy a full square, about four hundred by five hundred feet. The directors are preparing a circular, in which they say the arrangements for cheap transit to and from all parts of the country are being perfected.

THE Levant Times gives a long account of the coronation of Prince Cassa, the new King of Ethiope, which took place at Axum on the 14th of January. The solemnities lasted a fortnight, and the first step in them was Prince Cassa's departure from Adoa on the 4th of January en route for Axum, which was reached on the 12th. On the 13th a grand review took place, at which 3,000 Abyssinian priests were present as spectators. On the 14th, Cassa made his solemn entry into the Cathedral of Axum where the coronation ceremony was gone through. At the termination of this, he repaired to a palace which he had had specially built for the occasion, and mounted the throne, leading up to which were twelve steps, wearing the crown upon his head. At this moment the company were so overjoyed as to be unable to restrain themselves, and began discharging fire-arms in the throne room, much to the delight apparently of the new monarch, but to the detriment of the ceiling if not of the nerves of any delicately organized Ethiopians. The close of the rejoicing will, however, in the eyes of Englishmen, atone for the somewhat barbaric nature of the previous proceedings. The eating and drinking lasted three consecutive days, and during the whole of this time the King remained in the room. The people entered by relays of four hundred at a time, and the carnival did not end until 4,000 head of cattle and 500 hives of honey used in the preparation of hydromed had been consumed.

THE report of the German Immigrant Society of New York shows that during the past month 21,890 German immigrants were landed at that port, an increase of 10,700 as compared with the corresponding month of last year. Total of arrivals since the 1st of January last, 1851. Mr. Gustave Schwab has been elected President of the society.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS.

The State Association—Third Day of the Convention—A Noticeable Improvement—Practical Addresses—The Officers Chosen for the Ensuing Year—Plans for the future—The Resolutions.

Yesterday, the third and closing day of the State Sunday School Convention, was perhaps the best of the three which has been taken up by the Association—not because the Convention was drawing to a close, but because there had apparently been retained a goodly portion of the best of the wine for the last. There was noticeably less talking for talk's sake and more information in the words of the workers who participated in the exercises. Especially was this the case with the two addresses in the afternoon, upon the teachers work, both of which were models, in their particular line. As the hour for closing drew nigh it seemed that there was an anxiety to really improve the time, and none but the best plans and thoughts were produced for the entertainment of the delegates.

A noticeable feature of the Convention—and which aided not a little in its success—was the excellent character of the musical exercises, both in the selection of the hymns, and in their rendering under the direction of Prof. Johnson, especially was this pleasant to note, as an evidence that home talent is sometimes much in advance of imported genius.

The morning session was commenced at the usual hour, Rev. A Peltz presiding. After the usual devotional exercises, reports from local organizations were heard. The one of particular interest to our readers was that presented by Mr. T. J. Gillespie, for Allegheny county, which showed that the county association was organized in 1870, and there were now about 96 townships and boroughs represented, twenty meetings were held last winter in fifteen places. The county has a good many schools which only continue through the summer and freeze up in the winter. There are 300 schools connected with the association and 124 had reported. In the schools there were 2,120 scholars and an average attendance of 1,900.

At the close of these reports the Rev. E. Payson, of Chicago, delivered an interesting address on "Plans and Experiences in Western State Work."

Mr. Miller, Chairman of the Committee, presented the following list of officers for the ensuing year:

"The Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania Independent Order of Good Templars send Christian greetings with congratulations upon the consideration given to temperance as a part of Sunday School instruction. Thankful for the success of the temperance cause in the past, we ask your continued prayers and efforts for the suppression of the traffic in intoxicating drink, the chief foe of the evangelist, and obstruction to successful Sabbath School or Temperance work.

S. B. CHASE, G. W. Chief Templar."

The following was from Mr. A. J. Beining, Michigan:

"The memorial tree planted by the delegates of the Seventh Annual Convention, has weathered the storms of winter. It still lives. May its evergreen be a true memento of the life and the spirit of the Pennsylvania State Sunday School Association now assembled."

The President was directed to send responses to these fraternal messages.

THE RESOLUTIONS.

The Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions presented the following, which were adopted unanimously:

Resolved, That we devoutly acknowledge the goodness of God in the exceedingly pleasant associations of our present meeting; in the inspiring influences of our holy devotions; in the illustration afforded of the vast breadth of scope for the union and co-operation of our Lord Jesus, and in the freshened heart for work in which we expect to return from these heavenly places in Christ.

Resolved, That the usefulness of thorough organizations for advancing the Sabbath school work has ceased to be a problem, but to give them their highest effect it is desirable that the work of the State and county associations should be supplemented by direct auxiliaries, through which the benefits of local conventions and institutes may be brought within reach of all, and also the statistics needed for county reports, the more readily and accurately obtained.

Resolved, That the accounts which have been given of the results of the efforts made in the different localities in counties by a series of institutes and conventions, as in the case of Allegheny and Center, give us the most favorable impression concerning this form of efforts, and we feel the indebtedness of our cause to the brethren who have carried through this campaign work.

Resolved, That we place on record our appreciation of the faithful services of Rev. Geo. A. Peltz, Secretary of the Association, and that the success of his labors, visible in the Sabbath School map of the State, and attested by many of the reports from counties made to this meeting, assure us alike of the value of the agency and the good hand of God in the choice of the incumbent.

Resolved, That the organization by counties of the entire State, during the next association year, is work which, by God's blessing, must be done. To the counties yet unorganized we send our cordial call, "come with us and we will do you good." To ourselves we say "fill up the ranks."

Resolved, That the highest mission of the Sabbath School is to become instrumental in bringing scholars directly to the reception of Christ as their Saviour, and that this purpose should be tenderly and often impressed upon them; and that for rendering efforts more probable of success, the susceptibility of young children to spiritual conversion should become more a subject of pulpit instruction.

Resolved, That the Sabbath School ought to be made a power for the promotion of public morality and virtue; and inasmuch as the providences of God clearly designate the cause of temperance as the absorbing interest of the time, and one which reaches triumph only as the public sentiment is educated to it; we therefore recommend that in such way as may seem best in each case our Sabbath School scholars be trained in the principle and practice of total abstinence from all intoxicating drinks.

Resolved, That we heartily recommend all suitable efforts to protect the members of our Sabbath Schools against the use of tobacco as well as intoxicating drinks.

Resolved, That in view of the inseparable relations between the Sabbath and the public peace and thrift, as well as the interests of religion, and also in view of the many influences actively at work to promote its destruction, we commend to Sabbath Schools the importance of earnest effort to cultivate in the scholars an enlightened and conscientious regard for the Sabbath as set forth in the Fourth Commandment and enforced by the instruction and example of our Lord.

Resolved, That we respectfully submit to the consideration of pastors of churches the great value to the Sabbath School cause of their personal participation in the direction of schools, and their frequent visits to them to give words of encouragement and instruction, and to establish with the scholars such intimate relations as will benefit alike the school and pastorate.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Association be requested to convey to the railroad companies which have favored us in regard to fares, our acknowledgement of the courtesies thus bestowed.

Resolved, That the President be requested to express in public the thanks of this Convention to the people of Pittsburgh for Christian hospitalities extended to our members; to the local Committee of Arrangements for the time, care and expense cheerfully bestowed for enhancing the interests of the occasion, and the comfort of the delegates; to Prof. Wm. Johnson for his very acceptable leadership of our praise services; to the trustees of the church in which we are convened for their kindness in placing at our service this convenient and beautiful edifice; and also from the brethren and sisters from abroad to whom our present meeting has been indebted for no light share of its interest.

After some discussion, upon the report of the Committee on Time and Place of the next meeting it was decided to hold it at Titusville, in June 1873.

The Convention was then dismissed with the benediction by the Rev. Dr. Hay.

Afternoon Session.

The afternoon session was opened with devotional exercises. Rev. George A. Peltz then took the platform and gave an excellent address on "Defects in our Working" which was replete with practical suggestions. The greatest defects according to the speaker were first, neglect of study at home. Second, neglect of urging upon the children the importance of studying at home. And last failing to bring the cross in the foreground—a failure to clearly, explicitly explain the plan of salvation.

The speaker contended that if the earnest teacher would make a note of these defects, and make an earnest effort to avoid them, that it was possible to so improve the teaching that none of these criticisms could be made upon it. His explanation of his plan was very interesting, and his address what an address should be.

Prof. Johnson led the Convention in a hymn, after which the chairman introduced Miss Hattie M. Morris of New York, who addressed the Convention in an interesting manner on the general subject of the teachers methods of preparing and applying the truth. The lady said there were four essential principles to be remembered in studying the lesson.

The head, the heart, study, and prayer, must all be combined in preparing a lesson. If they wished to make an impression upon the minds of the scholars, all the teacher's points must be clear and distinct. The teacher should first determine the points of the lesson and then seek for illustrations. Another good plan was for the teacher to repeat the story over to himself, just as it was to be told to the scholars. This would fix upon the lesson clearly upon the mind of the teacher and then it would be comparatively an easy matter to teach it. All the illustrations should be clearly understood and then application—no illustration should be adopted simply because it contained a pretty idea—unless it was pointed. The teachers also should study child's nature, study books, and remember what pleased or attracted them in childhood.

In explanation of her theory, the lady gave a number of examples, all of which possessed the great merit as practicability of distinct from theorizing.

At the conclusion of her remarks a class of small children was brought in and placed in the two front seats in front of the platform, when Miss Morris explained her method of teaching an infant class. A sort of object lesson, which was an exemplification or explanation of a system, practically possible of imitation or adoption by any earnest teacher, with ordinary tact and kindness of heart, and in that respect was perhaps the best exercise of the Convention thus far.

The Chairman of the Committee on the Secretary's report presented a resolution authorizing the division of the State into ninety districts, with one Assistant Secretary in each district, to gather statistics and organize district associations—these association Secretaries to be subordinate to the general Secretary, and to "do the work from the love of it" as their only compensation.

The resolution was adopted.

The session was closed with the benedi ction.

Evening Session.

The evening session opened promptly, with a small audience in attendance, and was opened with the singing of the hymn commencing—

"Saviour, like a shepherd lead us,"

Prof. M. Johnson leading in the vocal exercises and presiding at the organ.

The chair was occupied by the Rev. George A. Peltz, who presided in the absence of President Beaver.

Half an hour was then spent in devotional exercises, conducted by the President.

A free conference on "What have I learned" then ensued, in which the delegates made five minute speeches in regard to the impressions made upon them by the proceedings of the Assembly. One had learned to appreciate more the great responsibility of the teacher and the paramount importance of the teacher's work. Another had learned a great deal more than he ever knew before of the vast field that was before Sunday-school workers, and all ripe for the harvest.

A fraternal message was here read from the Indiana State Sunday School Convention, and the Secretary instructed to send a reply by letter.

A third delegate said he had received a new zeal in the work, and had learned that none of them were doing half what they should do.

Another delegate forty-five years ago had commenced a Sabbath School in an old carpenter shed, in Pittsburgh, and seen from this convention the wonderful growth of interest in the cause since then. He was especially instructed in listening to the explanations of new methods of teaching, and in examining the new machinery for the work, he thought, that one of these, the uniform lesson plan, at least should be adopted in every school. Still another had learned these things, 1st, that he did not appreciate the work as he should. 2d, That there were as many present as he. 3d, That he envied not the feeling of that one who was unknown in the work. Another that he was not half earnest enough and he hoped that the future might see him more faithful. An enthusiastic delegate also had learned these things: 1st, the importance of organizing of associations to concentrate the work; 2d, something of a child's nature; 3d, the necessity of appealing to the child's sensibilities. Another had learned from one of the lessons taught by a lady who had occupied the platform in the afternoon, "That God does what he promises"—in a way that he had never understood it before. A delegate from Washington county had learned that they should increase the recruiting force outside the church to bring all within it. The last speaker had learned that philosophy and science could be applied in the Sunday School work.

A short time was then spent in receiving subscriptions for the advancement of the work, which came in quite rapidly. The total amount received for this purpose during the Convention aggregated about $3,500.

The remainder of the session was devoted to the closing addresses, the speakers being called upon without previous notice: Rev. C. R. Whitney, of Delaware county, was the first speaker. Miss Anna Randall Deel next read the "Creed of the Bells," which was received with rapturous applause. Hon. Mr. Dartt, of Bradford, Rev. Mr. Hanen, of Philadelphia, Rev. Alfred Taylor, C. C. Kimball, of Erie, and J. H. Baldwin, of Pittsburgh, followed each other in five minute speeches.

General Beaver, Chairman of the Convention then made an earnest closing address, after which the Convention was finally adjourned with prayer and benediction by the Rev. George A. Peltz.

THE Reading Times and Dispatch makes [illegible] at large, for Berks county. After we secure one of the three candidates for Allegheny, we have no objection to the claim of Berks. We have unofficial intimations that Senator Harry White will not decline the Congressional nomination; but if he shall, we certainly must insist on his successor coming from our county. We, like Berks, have plenty of material, and also have plenty of work to keep one or two "Congressmen at large" busy all the time. The Times and Dispatch does not introduce the name of any prominent man as a possible candidate from Berks.

GEORGE W. JULIAN, the old time abolitionist, must have felt a little queer hanging around a Democratic State Convention in Indiana, the other day, and it is no wonder when he was approached as a candidate for Congressman-at-large, he stole away from the Hoosier capital to the quietude of his home in the "burnt district;" but he left behind him a positive declination, with the hope a liberal Republican would be placed on the Democratic State ticket. The letter was read in the convention, but its draft on the generosity of the delegates not honored. The liberals were accepted as a tender to the party machine, with full permission to serve in the ranks. That was all.

IN NAPLES, and throughout Italy, the eruption of Mount Vesuvius, terrible as was the catastrophe, is regarded in scientific circles as a public blessing, on the theory that it saved the peninsula of Italy from a still greater calamity, in the form of an earthquake that would have been more general and disastrous in its results than the eruption. A summary of scientific observations made at many different points, show that prior to the outburst of the mountain the whole of Italy was one vast volcano in labor, and had it not been for the relief offered through the crater of Vesuvius, it is believed fearful disasters would have ensued. The London Times correspondent at Naples declares "the first jet of smoke from the mountain was the signal of salvation, for though the eruption might cost some lives, it preserved hundreds, perhaps thousands of others."

FEW years, if the destruction of American buffalo goes on at its present rate, they will have disappeared from the plains, and only be found in limited numbers in localities where it will not "pay" the hunter to follow them, for the mere sake of securing the robe. An idea of the extent of their slaughter may be formed from the fact that during May 25,000 buffalo were killed south of the Kansas and Pacific Railroad, for the sake of the hides alone, which are sold by the hunters to the traders for the paltry sum of two dollars each, for shipment to eastern markets. It is not a very noble sport to shoot buffalo, for there is no danger to a sportsman, armed with a navy revolver or Spencer rifle, yet thousands, we see it stated, are killed every month, and their carcasses left to rot on the plains to gratify the cockney travelers, who annually invade the west in search of adventures. An attempt was made at the late session to secure a law of Congress forbidding the ruthless slaughter, but we believe it failed.

THE new postal law, passed at the close of the session, makes changes in existing postal regulations of general interest. The most important is the adoption of the postal card system so popular and generally used in Great Britain and other European countries, for local correspondence. The law provides for an open card to be manufactured under the direction of the Postmaster General. The face of the card will bear a one-cent stamp, and will be provided with lines for the address, and the back will be ruled for the letter. The price of the card and stamp will be only one cent. It will probably be three or four weeks before they will be ready for sale, as the plates for printing have yet to be prepared. An important reduction has been made in the postage on circulars, newspapers and other transient printed matter. Under the old law it was two cents for every four ounces or less, but this is now changed to one cent for two ounces or less. Small circulars, which formerly cost two cents to mail, can now be sent for one cent—an important reduction to business men who use the mails largely to advertise their business. The change is now in force, or will be as soon as the necessary instructions are issued.

THE following appears double-leaded in the editorial columns of the Harrisburg Telegraph. It is about what we expected of Forney some time ago. He has been hunting "flesh-pots," and not finding them or any "loaves and fishes" likely to fall into his basket, he will bolt. Let him go, sooner the better. "Good bye, John:"

PHILADELPHIA, June 11, 1872.

To the Editor of the Telegraph:

SIR: You may state with the most perfect assurance of its truthfulness, that John W. Forney will soon carry the Press, and what is of equally small consequence, himself, over to the support of Greeley and Brown. McClure has been negotiating this purchase for some time and the sale is made. It should astonish no one that this parasite should betray our party. No person, or party, ever trusted Forney and escaped betrayal from that cringing sycophant. From Mrs. Forrest to Andrew Johnson all who ever gave him their confidence have felt the viper's sting. I now give you this information, and I engage to write the life of this fellow, for the purpose of showing the Greeleyites what they have bought, the Republicans the good luck they enjoy in his departure, and Forney the anger of his Creator in sparing his life in the cholera year of 1833. ATTICUS.

THE New York Evening Post criticises the Philadelphia platform with considerable severity, and says that the closing part of General Grant's first message would have been a better platform. We believe such instruments have lost a great deal of their force. With the people now-a-days, the man is generally the platform, and the Post's idea, although from a hostile source, is not a bad one. Here is what General Grant said in the paragraph referred to:

"The policy of the administration, a thorough enforcement of every law, a faithful collection of the taxes provided, economy in the disbursement of the same, a prompt payment of every debt of the nation, a reduction of taxes as readily as the requirements of the country will admit, reductions of taxation and tariff to be so arranged as to afford the greatest relief to the greatest number, honest and fair dealings with all people, to the end that war, with all its blighting consequences may be avoided, but without surrendering any right or obligation due to us; a reform in the treatment of Indians and in the whole civil service of the country; and, finally, in securing a pure, untrammelled ballot, where every man entitled to cast a vote may do so just once at each election, without fear of molestation or proscription on account of political party, nationality or color."

THE cheapness of European travel, and the fact that Saratoga, Newport and Cape May are several times more expensive than a two months' sojourn in Paris, Rome or Switzerland, is driving much of the American summer travel across the sea. This is shown by the fact that the cabin accommodations of the twelve steamers per week which leave New York for Europe, are engaged up until the end of August. The New York Herald warns proprietors of American summer resorts that they are destroying the geese so prolific in golden eggs. It is estimated the steamers for the summer months will carry abroad nearly thirty-seven thousand cabin passengers, and if each of these passengers spends on the steamers and in Europe only a thousand dollars—they will average double that sum—it would aggregate for the season thirty seven millions of dollars expended by American pleasure travellers, fully one-half of which would be retained at home, were our leading resorts less expensive. Still we think there are abundant facilities in this country for the profitable expenditure of the money of our summer pleasure seekers. A trip to California, for instance, will bring more profit and enjoyment to nine-tenths of those who go abroad than any thing they can see or appreciate amid the "effete" despotisms. If health and relaxation only are sought after, our own State, with its grand mountain scenery, has all the requisites for a two months' holiday, and it need not cost so much as either an ocean trip or one to California, besides possessing the advantage of nearness to home.

ROUMANIAN TROUBLES.

We are glad no note that a movement has at last been made by the British cabinet, seconded by the Italian Government, to prevent hereafter the recurrence of the barbarous outbreaks of the natives against the Jews in Roumania, which have too often, of late years, sent a thrill of horror throughout the civilized world. Our sympathies, formerly, were easily aroused against the cruelties and injustice perpetrated against the down-trodden and unoffending slave in the South, but we venture to assert, that in proportion to the numbers engaged and offences charged against the slave-drivers of the South and the Greeks of Mediterranean Europe, the crimes and barbarities of the latter against the helpless Hebrew population far outstrip in inhumanity and disgusting, sickening details, the enormities charged against the former. What makes these latest horrors more unbearable to civilization and justice, and causes even stolid England and benighted Italy to cry out against them, is that they are perpetrated in the name of Religion, and are therefore persecutions and murders for Religious opinion, and thus form such a cruel and perverse intolerance as to cause the very blood to creep and curdle in ones veins.

As suggested in the GAZETTE in a former article on this subject, a conference of the Great Powers has been proposed by England to settle this troublesome matter. All personal and merely private efforts have failed utterly to cause the Jews and Greeks to live together in harmony. The former class are unable, in the feeblest manner to assert their claims to life, liberty and property, and are therefore wholly at the mercy of the blood-thirsty maniacs, who upon the slightest pretense, and often with no pretense whatever, more than the wolf in the fable had, for devouring the lamb, engage in wholesale slaughter and outrage, and commit the most infernal and hellish work—in the name of religion. The Roumanian government (?) is either wholly powerless to protect the people, or, with a perfidy not inconsistent with its past ignoble history, winks at the horrid orgies of the cruel mob, and thus permits thousands of unoffending and unprotected men, women and children to be tortured and murdered in cold blood.

The ghastly pictures, sent over by English correspondents, of the inhuman, diabolical treatment of the victims, are sickening in their horrid details of cruelty and diabolism. Infants, with their brains dashed out against the walls of their mother's homes; men and women cut open, and left to rot in the streets, dragged into ditches or dumped into streams like dead dogs or swine. Women with their eyes gouged out, their ears cut off; children with their limbs torn from their bodies—but we desist and leave our readers to imagine the rest, as it is too horrid for us to dwell upon longer.

Is it not high time that Christian nations shall interfere to stop such bloody and awful work? It is no new thing; it has been going on for years past with greater or less ferocity; but so careful is each power to avoid meddling with the affairs of a friendly nation, that it has been submitted to until it has grown to be unbearable. Russia, which has probably had it in its power to stop the massacres at any time, fearful of opening up the dreaded "Eastern question," has menacingly looked on of late, and even now refuses to join in the conference, suggesting in its stead a "joint note" to the Roumanian government. This may be the wisest and most proper course to pursue, as, in the event of a general war being declared, the condition of the persecuted Jews may even be rendered far worse than it is at present. What is wanted is to establish justice and tolerance in religion. This much must be accomplished, now that the work has begun, and whichever course promises to secure this in the most speedy and permanent manner, should be adopted, no matter if oceans of blood shall be necessarily spilled in the effort.

The Great Powers cannot longer afford to look quietly upon the perpetration of such inhumanity. The world cannot afford it either, and if it shall be necessary, an alliance ought to be formed to drive the Turkish power from the face of the earth, even if it required the enlistment and resources of every civilized and enlightened nation. We want to see America represented in this conference, along with England and Prussia. We are as much interested as they, although separated from the bloody scenes by two oceans. Our people are often found traveling through this scourged region, and unless lawlessness is put down now, we may at no distant day find ourselves engaged in a difficult task of avenging some outrage upon our own people. But, on the higher ground of religious freedom, are we, as a nation, pledged to do our share in this crusade against barbarism and injustice. We need not hunt for precedents; they can be found on the borders of this same inter-sea—where the blood-thirsty and avaricious Algerine was taught his duty to his fellow-man in short lessons, from under the Stars and Stripes of free America.

THE TWENTY-THIRD CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

It will be remembered that the Congressional Convention, composed of the Allegheny county portion of the XXIIId District, adopted a resolution authorizing the candidate to select his own conferees, to meet with those from the counties of Butler and Armstrong, for the purpose of deciding on the nominee for the Congressional District. Hon. James L. Graham, the candidate of this county, in accordance with that resolution, has named as the Allegheny conferees, Messrs. John W. Chalfant, Hugh S. Fleming and John Heath. Better selections could not have been made. They are well adapted in every way to the performance of their duty, and will go into the conference backed by a unanimous vote of the delegates at the recent convention, and insist upon the nomination of an Allegheny man.

Butler and Armstrong have each had the Representative of the District since Allegheny has held that honor, and surely no one will dispute that we are clearly entitled to the next Congressman. Whether we compare the vast mercantile, commercial, agricultural, laboring and manufacturing interests of Allegheny with the comparatively meagre demands of our colleagues of Butler or Armstrong, or view the matter from the stand point of the recently adopted State apportionment law, wherein Allegheny county was granted an additional Representative in Congress, or in the less material light of the fact, that it is clearly our turn once in three times, or in whatever way we look at the matter Allegheny ought to be permitted to name the next member from the XXIII District. Mr. McJunkin—though an able, upright, conscientious gentleman, whom any district might claim with much credit—is by no means an effective or satisfactory Representative for Allegheny county. He is very little known here, almost entirely unacquainted with our business interests and people, with a mind and heart greatly opposed to contentions and Congressional struggles, such as are sometimes necessary in order to fight through desirable measures, important to our commercial, laboring and manufacturing interests, and altogether unfitted by personal inclination, business training and experience to represent this community, though in a general way, a most excellent member and a most kind and worthy Christian gentleman. From our knowledge of him personally, and our acquaintance with his general home-like disposition, we are satisfied he is disinclined, through any personal ambition, to longer retain the seat in Congress, and if he shall again permit the use of his name in the conference, it will be wholly in deference to the wishes of his friends and neighbors in the district, who are undivided in their esteem and friendship for him as a man.

In regard to Armstrong county, we hope our friends there, will not prolong the conference by strongly urging their candidate, inasmuch as they have had a Representative in Congress from this district since Allegheny has been similarly favored, and we feel that their usual courtesy and sense of justice will prompt them—after they shall have cast a complimentary vote for their candidate, Col. Jackson—to join with Butler and Allegheny, and make the nomination of Hon. James L. Graham—the gentleman whom this county presents to the conference—unanimous.

It is useless for us to add any word in the latter's favor, as a gentleman, an able legislator, an incorruptible Representative, a public man of large experience and acquaintance, a man of culture and high character—it is all known in the District, as he has been before the public in this county and in the State Legislature for over fifteen years, and stands to-day before his constituents proudly erect, with reputation for honor and honesty untarnished and unimpeached. If he shall be elected to Congress, we pledge his every effort in the interests of his entire constituency, and feel that we shall be ably and faithfully represented by one largely conversant and identified with our material necessities, as a great manufacturing, commercial and grain-growing district. We hope soon to be able to announce that Allegheny county has been honored in his selection by the unanimous voice of the conferees.

POLITICAL NOTES.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer opposes the nomination of Democratic candidates for Congress until after the Baltimore Convention, so that the Liberals may have a voice. That policy will do in doubtful districts, but will not be accepted in those strongly Democratic. This is clear from proceedings so far.

THE Boston Times says Mr. Wilson's successor in the Senate is already selected by the popular voice of Massachussets in the person of Secretary Boutwell. General Butler is believed to have aspirations.

IN 1860, when the tariff was simple, the Democratic party required $6.25 to collect every $100 of customs duty. In 1871, when the tariff was relatively very complicated, the Republican party collected these duties at the rate of $3.11 for every $100. The Democrats now ask for control of the Government on the ground that they can manage it more cheaply.

GEORGE B. McCLELLAN—if the fact is of much importance—has written a letter warmly protesting against Greeley's nomination at Baltimore.

Beside the Chicago Tribune, three Republican papers in Illinois support Mr. Greeley. They have an aggregate circulation of one thousand.

IT has been suggested that Mr. Colfax may enter the field as a candidate for Senator against Governor Morton. Should that be so, it will have even a greater stimulus on the October canvass in his State than his name on the national ticket. In any event there seems no reason to doubt the October result in Indiana.

ALEX. H. STEPHENS is urged as the Democratic candidate for Governor of Georgia.

THE "reform" which was to come through Cincinnati is not as perceptible as it was. Ben. Wood headed the list of Vice-Presidents of the ratification meeting in New York, and John Morrissey is the moneyed man of the movement. The one is a dealer in lottery policies and the other a runner of faro banks. "Reform!"

MR. THOMAS SETTLE, President of the Philadelphia Convention, was brother-in-law to Stephen A. Douglas, and has been Minister to Peru. He apparently, is not a man of many words, as we notice in his interview with President Grant, when he communicated to the President the doings of the Convention, he declined making a speech.

WE would be pleased if the Liberal Republicans would get up a ratification. In fact we would contribute to its success; but are not willing to advise Democrats to abandon their time-honored principles and organization by enlisting under the Greeley banner yet awhile.—Post.

After awhile you will, though.

IT is discreditable, but true, that in no profession is there such a proportion of the green-eyed element as in journalism. The snarling and snapping of these envious curs (they can't bite, their jaws are too weak to hold teeth) is not confined to any particular locality, but is heard throughout the land. There is always a pack at the heels of every successful journalist, no matter where he may locate.—Dispatch.

True, every word of it; witness the following from the Pittsburgh Dispatch, of the same issue as the above.

"The gentlemanly editors of the Pittsburgh DAILY GAZETTE (we use the plural because it is generally understood that it requires the combined effort of six feeble-minded fragments of humanity to conduct the effeminate sheet) will please accept our sincere thanks for the very kind, polite and complimentary personal allusion in their issue of yesterday."

We accept.

PERSONAL.

THE success of the American prima donna, Miss Kellogg, in London, is the most genuine and satisfactory to herself, and her friends that she has yet achieved. Without any of the advertising means usually employed, she has successfully taken her place in that great city among the first lyric artists of the age. She has been engaged at Her Majesty's Opera till the end of the season.

HERE are the topics of some of the coming lecturers: Bishop Haven, "Stick;" Col. Higginson, "Thinking Animals;" Parton, "The Kings of Business;" Milburn, "Milton;" Everett Hale, "A Civil Servant;" Robert Collyer, "Our Folks and Other Folks;" Bret Harte, "The Argonauts of '49;" Joaquin Miller, "Literary London," and "The Men of the Sierras;" and so on over a list of a hundred luminaries.

MR. GEORGE A. SALA, according to the Printer's Register, made a curious contract for writing the "Thanksgiving Number" of the Graphic. He was to put together 37,000 words, and to be paid for his task at the rate of a halfpenny a word. It is asserted that upwards of a quarter of a million of copies of it were required. One halfpenny per word, however, was not such very great pay as may be supposed, more especially to a paper which has already yielded 100 per cent. on its capital. Mr. Sala had a heavy task to perform; he had something like a volume to write, in a great hurry, and he got less than £80 for it.

PERE HYACINTHE, the dissenting Catholic priest, is engaged to be married to the only daughter of Count von Edal, a Bavarian nobleman of considerable wealth. He made the acquaintance of the lady in Rome.

THE Empress Eugenie has been suffering for some time past from a painful inflammation of the facial glands. Her physicians think she will have to undergo an operation that may disfigure her countenance for life.

GAVAZZI lectured in Philadelphia on Papal Infallibility, on Tuesday evening. He was introduced by George H. Stuart.

THE new French Minister to the United States, Marquis Noailles, is a member of the French Academy, and has devoted his life to literary and political persuits. Although a legitimist by birth, he believes Republicanism the only form of Government adapted to the needs of France. But the Republicanism and literary abilities of the Marquis of Noailles will not alone commend him to the people of the United States. The fact that his grandfather fought by the side of Lafayette and Rochambeau in the American War of Independence will secure for him a hearty welcome.

THE Nation says that "Dr. Doellinger has been eulogizing Luther, in his lecture at the Munich University, as an intellectual Titan, and the greatest genius Germany ever produced." What could make the great Doctor more obnoxious to the Catholic church.

BEECHER takes ground "that the germ of everything good is in the heart previous to regeneration by the Spirit." This is rather diluted orthodoxy.

AN English lady was recently forced to pay $20 as damages for having given a good "character" to a servant whom she knew did not deserve it. This offense, which is the opposite of slander, is thus made by an English court to rank with the latter.

THE result of Mr. Greeley's sojourn at Chappaqua is that a late Tribune has an article on the adulteration of milk. He thinks that if the cow was better under-drained, and the control of its internal revenue regulated by the Congressional District, it would lay cocoa nuts of a better quality with fifty per cent. more cream to the acre.

NILSSON reappeared in London at Drury Lane Theatre, on the 29th of May, in "La Traviata," and was greeted back with immense enthusiasm. The Morning Post says: "When she began to sing all former delights were renewed, as firmly and closely as though there never had been a break, and her two years' absence was bridged over by a new bond."

MR. BERGH'S soul is to have another plaster. An artificial pigeon has been contrived which will soar like a real one, and save much columbine massacre by ruthless marksmen.

ORANGES sell for a dollar a thousand a Zanzabar. No wonder Dr. Livingstone likes the country. Stanley will soon ship a cargo to the New York Herald.

A WASHINGTON correspondent, commenting upon Kate Chase Sprague's devotion to her maternal duties at the expense of her social ones, says: "Her husband's mother, Mrs. Sprague, places the snug little sum of $250,000 in the bank for each of Kate's babies as fast as they make their apperance in this unhappy world, with the generous amount of $50,000 for Kate herself."

PHILADELPHIA.

The Convention—Cape May—Joe Jefferson Sea Shore—Base Ball—Regatta, etc.

[Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, June 10, 1872.

The Convention is over and Philadelphia rests satisfied. From the time the question of holding the Convention here was first agitated, the Quaker City had anticipated a good time of it; she intended showing the visitors from every part of the Union how well she could entertain them, and soon after it was definitely settled that the body would convene here, preparations for the reception began. The earnest efforts put forth have more than realized the fondest hopes, for everybody has departed leaving behind the heartiest expressions in praise of the care taken of him while here. Even George Francis Train (it seems one cannot get along without attending to him) has left with a smiling face, and with a half-implied promise that when he becomes President he will recommend an appropriation for League Island.

TO THE SEASHORE.

The "annual hegira" has commenced. All appear bent on taking that "dip in the cold ocean." Atlantic City and Cape May can be considered the favorite resorts for Philadelphia; Long Branch cannot be tolerated. We can perceive no reason for the latter's unpopularity, unless it is that it rests under the wing of Gotham, Philadelphia and New York are jealous of each other you will understand. For Atlantic City there are already over fifty excursions announced, one for each day in the week from July 1st till the middle of September. This mode of "doing" the watering places grows in repute every year. The excursions are gotten up under the various auspices—churches, Sunday schools, fire companies, military organizations, bands of music and the numerous orders—from the country as well as the city proper. Indeed, John and Peter, with Sarah and Jane, make it a point every season to forget the growing crops and the dairy for at least one day, and thus visit the seashore.

JOE JEFFERSON.

Some time since Joseph Jefferson was announced to appear at the Walnut street Theatre tonight for a brief season, and everybody thereupon promised himself that he must look once more upon that celebrated impersonation of his. But the information comes that the engagement will have to be postponed. For a few weeks past Mr. Jefferson has suffered with a loss of the power of one of his eyes, a mistiness spreading over it whenever he was exposed to glaring lights. At length, becoming alarmed, he repaired to a Baltimore oculist, who, after careful examination, states that an operation must be immediately performed, or he may lose his sight forever, and that it will be utterly impossible for him to appear on the stage for a length of time—perhaps never again. This cannot be but sad intelligence to Mr. Jefferson's thousands of friends and admirers.

BASE BALL.

The Athletics, thus far, seem to have no cause to fear the loss of the championship streamer this season. They have only lost one game, the first of the series with the Mutuals, of New York. The score was 3 to 2. The Baltimore affair has not been settled yet, but candid judges say that the Athletics were not in the fault. The first accounts of the unfortunate proceedings went forth from the pens of those who did not know what they were writing of as they knew nothing whatever of the rules and regulations of the game. The second of the Mutual series was played Saturday afternoon on the Athletics (Jefferson street) ground. The result was the most remarkable on record—the score standing in the end at 19 for the Philadelphians, to 0 for the New Yorkers.

TOTAL DARKNESS.

Owing to a strike among the workers at the gas works, a portion of the city has had a season of almost total darkness. The men ask for an advance of wages and decrease in the number of working hours. They claim that they labor harder and for less pay than the men employed in the works in other cities. Exertions are bemade to bring about an amicable settlement, which, it is hoped, will be perfected in a few days.

REGATTA.

The National Amateur Regatta begins on Thursday. Viewers of the races will not be allowed upon the river in any craft except such as may be permitted by the committee of arrangements. WALTER.

IT appears from the report of the Registrar-General, just issued, that there is an undue preponderance of the male element in the Scottish nurseries. Of the 116,127 children born in that country during 1871, 60,072 were boys, and 56,055 girls; thus showing that the proportion of the sexes at birth was 107.2 boys for every 100 girls. It is well known, and has been repeatedly pointed out, that the preponderance of male births in Scotland exceeds that observed in England or on the continent of Europe.

FROM OTHER SHORES.

THE Saturday Review fears that the newspaper men in England will adopt the American practice of reporting private interviews with public men and convicts.

PROVINCIAL strikes are gradually solving themselves in various ways. At Derby the silk spinners have been replaced by women; but at Sheffield the bricklayers have carried their point.

IT is rumored that at the request of the Archduke John of Austria, the Sultan will lend to the Vienna Exhibition his artistic collections, which few tourists have had the good fortune to behold.

THE Athenaeum states that Mr. Carlyle received the other day, from the German Empress, the formal expression of the thanks of the Emperor, for his "Life of Frederick the Great."

THE use of the Bible in schools is still a question which agitates the professors and school boards in England, extreme views being taken upon the subject on both sides, and much earnestness evinced.

THE task of regulating the frontier line between Alsace-Lorraine and France is nearly completed; the officials of France and Germany conduct the labors jointly, and the understanding between them is all that could be desired.

IT is now the fashion in London to carry the dead to their graves in open cars or catafalques, and instead of black gloves and scarfs, gray are substituted; the followers of the cars are dressed in gray and silver, black being voted too sombre. These catafalques are described by a correspondent as very handsome affairs, like gala boats on wheels—and the honor of being carried from the temporal to the more lasting home in one is a very expensive affair.

JOURNALISM in Austria is not in a very good condition. The most influential journals published in Vienna are owned by banks and devoted to their interests. When it is known that an Austrian bank does not confine its business to banking operations as understood in this country, but that its undertakings are of the most manifold kind in all branches of industry and commerce, it will at once be seen that the control of a widely-circulated newspaper must be of great assistance to the projects of such an institution, though it hardly would seem possible that journals so devoid of independence should exert much influence. The Neue Frie Presse, which has by far the largest circulation of any Vienna daily, is owned by the Union Bank. The Presse, having the next largest circulation, is owned by the Bank Verein; the Fremdenblatt, the so-called organ of the Vienna aristocracy, by the Credit Austalt, also a bank; while the Wechsler Bank runs two daily papers. As the authorities exercise a strict censorship over all political matter appearing in Austrian newspapers, while their articles relating to commercial and financial affairs are dictated by the moneyed corporations which control them, the editors must have a very limited field for the expression of honest and independent views. As the highest aim of Austrian journalism appears to be the accumulation of wealth, no scruples are entertained as to the means used for attaining success.

Sickness of Forty Years' Duration Cured.

The cure related below is one of a very remarkable kind, on account of its long duration, and is well worthy of the attention of all those who may be afflicted with chronic disease of any kind, showing clearly that all such cases can be cured. It is that of Jacob Wagner, a respectable farmer, aged 63 years, of New Sewickley township, who has been in gradually failing health for a period of about forty years. The disease manifested itself by a continued cough and a wasting state of health, which, about the beginning of last October, culminated in an attack which showed that the lungs were becoming seriously affected. Mr. Wagner, in this state of his case, applied to Dr. Keyser, of this city, who, by a system of medicine of a restorative kind, has completely cured him and restored him to a state of health to which he has been a stranger for many long and weary years. His cure is thorough and complete, and evinces an amount of skill and perseverance in the treatment of such cases, by Dr. Keyser, which is rarely it ever attained in a life time. The cure was chiefly effected by Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure, and is another of the many instances of the wonderful restorative power of that medicine, in the cure of every disease of long standing, especially those in which the pulmonary organs and the blood are deteriorated.

Dr. Keyser's office is at 167 Liberty street, in the rear of his Drug Store, from 10 A. M. until 1 P. M., and from 3 until 6 P. M., and on Saturday's at night.

A treatise on Lung Diseases sent wherever it is wanted.

CAUSELESS DEPRESSION.

This expression is often used, but it is manifestly absurd. Gloom and melancholy are not spontaneous. They are unnatural mental conditions and usually have corresponding causes. If there is no apparent reason for despondency, it is a symptom of physical disease. In nine cases out of ten the stomach, the liver and the bowels are responsible for the cloud which rests upon the brain. In all such cases immediate and permanent relief may be obtained by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. If the digestive organs are weak an invigorant is necessary; if the liver is disordered an alterative is required; if the bowels are constipated or irregular a gentle aperient is needed. In that famous vegetable remedy these three medicinal properties are commingled with several others of a scarcely less important character, and hence it speedily cures every species of hypochondria arising from material causes, by removing the causes themselves.

In the summer, when disorders of the stomach and bowels, bilious complaints and all diseases which affect the assimilating and secretive organs are especially prevalent, the importance of having this invaluable tonic, alterative and corrective in every dwelling, and within the reach of all who travel by land or water, cannot be overestimated. As it is a staple article throughout the country it would be next to impossible to find a settlement, near or remote, unprovided with a stock of this vegetable tonic.

DAILY GAZETTE.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, June 13, 1872.

The local financial aspect presents no new features. The banks have their sails taut and trim, and are moving along in full enjoyment of the prosperous gale that is now sweeping over the country from one point to another. The great financial ability of Secretary Boutwell becomes more and more apparent the longer he continues in office, and it would be a public calamity if under any possible circumstances anything should arise whereby the Government would be deprived of his services, which reasonable men of all parties readily admit are of incalculable value. To his master manipulations the country to-day is in a great measure indebted for its present prosperity. When he took charge of the portfolio of the United States Treasury many of his friends were fearful that the task was one of too great a magnitude for him to grapple with. The capitalists of the country, as a general thing, ridiculed the appointment, prophesying all kinds of disaster. But, see the result! As emergencies arose he met them unhesitatingly, and after almost four years of arduous duty, is acknowledged even by those who were most blatant against him, master of the situation, having gotten the financial condition not only of the Government, but also of the whole community, into as healthy a state as they were ever in before, and from present appearances he is going to make it much better. He determined to bring down the rate of interest so that the borrower in this country will be placed on as good a footing as the most favored of other nations; although not yet successful, there is every indication that it will be. When this is accomplished and a fair rate of protection awarded to American skill and industry, the artisan, the mechanic and the manufacturer of the United States will be able to bid defiance to the autocracy of Europe, who would, had they the power, bring the masses of this country down to the low standard by which the herds of working people in Europe are measured.

The general trade of the city is active, and large orders continue to arrive for the articles produced and manufactured here. The coal men are in great good humor. There has already been dispatched to ports below, on this rise, in the neighborhood of seven million bushels of coal, or two hundred and sixty-six thousand tons of fuel. Think of it, how immense this trade has grown to be, and yet there are men in the public councils of the country, at Washington, who deride the claims of Pittsburgh when it asks for appropriations to improve the rivers flowing hence, or for public buildings, when the facts stare them in the face that its tonnage is not surpassed by any other city in the country! While New York gets millions for her real and imaginary wants, here is a city of full as much, if not more, importance, forced to go without anything, depending alone on the energy of her citizens to bring wealth and trade to her port.

The national banks have commenced the publication of their statements, remarks on which will deferred for to-morrow's issue.

The premium on gold continues to fluctuate. The awards made by the Government in New York to-day were at 113.89 to 114.05 premium.

The strikes in the eastern cities continue to be a source of annoyance. The iron and metal workers struck to-day to the number of ten thousand for the eight hour system.

The money at the present business centres throughout the country is reported easy. The silver production in Nevada for 1871 foots up $22,000,000, of which the Comstock mine furnished $11,000,000, the Pioche $4,000,000, and the Eureka $2,000,000.

NEW YORK, June 13, 1872.

Gold steady at 113⅞@114. Loans were made at 1 to 4 for carrying. Clearings about $41,000,000. State bonds dull and firm. Money easy at 4@5. The depression in the stock market, started yesterday on the report of the failure of the Erie Bulls in London, was continued to-day by the Bears, hammering down the whole list, especially the Pacific Mail, which declined 5 per cent.; Northwestern common 66, and Illinois Central and Union Pacific were weak and declined materially. The market closed a fraction better than the lowest point of the day.

Dry Goods.

NEW YORK, June 13.—To-day there was rather better demand for cotton checks, owing to the season, and ginghams were fairly in request; other makes are dull; printing cloths remain at the same; prints in light demand, and sheetings and shirtings are firm, owing to a comparatively small stock in first hands; bleached sheetings and shirtings are stationary and appear to have been checked in their downward tendency; Hills 36 inch are quoted at 16c. The stock flannels, light and others, taken on private terms. Clothing wools have advanced 2c in Philadelphia owing to western dealeas refusing to sell, and little coming in; standard woolens sold well in face goods at standard figures; but cassimeres and that class were not so brisk. At auction foreign goods sold at reduced figures current.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, June 13, 1872.

ASHES.—Common Soda Ash, 4¾@5c; Refined, 6@6½c; Nitrate Soda, 5c; Pots, 10c; Pearls, 11c.

APPLE BUTTER.—Sales, in a jobbing way, at 65 to 70 per gallon for fair to prime, and 75 for choice.

BUTTER.—Continues very dull, and there is no indication at present of an early improvement, either in demand or prices; it is difficult to give quotations, as dealers as a rule are taking just what buyers are willing to give. Solid packed, 9 to 12, and roll, 12 to 14, as to quality and condition.

BROOM CORN.—Is quiet and unchanged; 5 to 8 cents per lb.

CHEESE.—Is reported steady but unchanged; 11 to 12 for Dairy; 13 to 13½ for Factory, and 14 to 14¼ for Goshen.

COUNTRY BACON.—Dull. We continue to quote at 4 to 5 for shoulders, 6 to 6¼ for clear sides, and 8 to 10 for hams. Country Lard, 7 to 8 cents.

CARBON OIL.—Is quoted at 19¼ to 20 cts by the car load, and 2@3 cts additional for smaller lots.

CANNED GOODS.—Peaches, 3 lb cans) $6,00 to $7 per case; Tomatoes $4,50@5; Corn, $5,50@$6,50, according to quality and brand.

CEMENT.—Louisville $2,50 to $2,75; Calcined Plaster $4,50; Cleveland white Lime, $2; eastern, $1,75.

DRIED FRUIT.—Peaches very dull; halves, 8½ to 9 cts; mixed, 7½ to 8; quarters 6 to 7; peeled, 15 to 18. Apples, 9 to 11 cts. Blackberries, 14 to 15; pitted Cherries, 25 to 28; unpitted, 6 to 8.

EGGS.—Coming in more freely, and with only a moderate demand, the market is weaker, and prices are weak and drooping; 16 may now be regarded as the ruling quotation, although there were some few sales made early in the day at 17. As there is no outlet, holders generally are anxious to realize.

FLOUR.—Is rather firmer under the influence of late advices from the west, our main source of supply, but there is no increase in the demand, and no change in prices; we continue to quote at $8,75 to $9,25 for fair to choice spring wheat, and $9,50 to $10 for red winter wheat. Rye Flour $5,75 to $6.

GRAIN.—Notwithstanding Wheat continues firm and advancing in the West, our market is very quiet; and while the receipts have fallen off considerably, the demand is light, which is owing to the fact that our millers for the present, are virtually out of the market. Red may be quoted at $1,95 to $2, and white, unless it is very good, will not bring much more. However, the feeling is generally entertained that prices will be higher within the next sixty days, though to say the least, it is doubtful. There is no improvement to note in the demand for Oats, with continued and liberal receipts the market is dull and weak, though prices are without quotable change; 50 to 51 cts. The stock in this market is large for the season, and increasing, but some dealers are still sanguine of a reaction soon, and, in consequence, are loth to sell at present quotations. Shelled Corn, is also dull, but there is no quotable change in prices; sales at 63 on track, and 65 free in elevator. Rye is quiet, and in the absence of sales we continue to quote at $1 to $1,05.

GROCERIES.—Coffee continues very firm and somewhat excited, and prices have still further advanced—we advance our quotations one cent per pound again. Sugars fairly active, and a largely increased trade is anticipated within the next few weeks. Syrups and Molasses quiet and unchanged.

REFINED SUGARS. — Standard Hards, 12¾; A Coffee, 11⅞; B, 11⅝; Ex C, 11¼; C Yellow and Circle C, 11⅛.

COFFEE.—Rio—Choice, 27@27¼; Prime, 26@26½; Good, 25½; Fair, 25. Java, 29. Roasted, pure, 29@30; lower grades, 27@28.

RAW SUGARS.—Choice New Orleans, 11@11¼; Prime, 10¾; Good, 10; Fair, 9½. Choice Porto Rico, 10¼; Prime, 10¼. Demerara—Choice, 11¾; Good, 11¼.

NEW ORLEANS MOLASSES.—Choice, 80; Prime, 75; Good, 70; Fair, 65.

SYRUPS.—Fancy White Drips, 65; White Honey, 60; Havemeyer & Elder's, 53@55; other grades, from 40@50.

RICE.—Carolina—Choice, 9½; Prime, 9¼; Good, 9. Rangoon, 8@8½. Patna, 8¼@9.

SPICES.—Grain Pepper, 24; do Pimento, 16; Cassia, 50; Cloves, 25; Nutmegs, $1,25.

HAY.—Continues very dull, and notwithstanding the receipts have fallen off considerably, the supply is still largely in excess of present requirements, and prices are weak though unchanged. We continue to quote at $22 to $25 per ton for common to medium baled, and $22 to 28 for prime to choice.

HEMP.—Kentucky rough at $130 per ton.

POTATOES.—Old stock in good supply and dull but unchanged; sales, in a jobbing way, at 40 to 50 cts per bushel. New crop, $6,50 to $,750 per barrel.

POULTRY.—Live Chickens may be quoted at 75 to 85 cts per pair, by the coop.

PROVISIONS.—Plain shoulders, 6cts; sugar cured do, 8cts; ribbed sides, 8 cts; clear rib, 8¾cts; clear, 9 cts. Breakfast Bacon, 10½@11cts; plain sugar cured hams, 12¾; do, canvased, 12¼. Lard; in tierces, 9¾; in kegs, 10¾; in buckets, 11¼. Mess Pork, 14½. Dried Beef, 17½. Ham sausage, 10.

RAGS.—Sales at 4@4½cts per lb.

SALT.—Quoted at $1,85 per barrel by the car load, and $2 in a jobbing way.

SEEDS.—There is little or nothing doing in either Clover or Timothy Seeds. Flax Seed would sell, but there is none offering.

TALLOW.—Rendered 7½ to 8 cts.

WILLOWS.—Offerings light; sales in a small way at 10 cts.

WHISKY.—Highwines, in a jobbing way, may be quoted at 92@93 cts.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, June 13, 1872.

Trade in petroleum continues very dull, and there is but little prospect of an early improvement. Crude is weak and lower, being quoted this afternoon at $3,87½ per bbl. Refined quiet but unchanged; spot or June, 22½; July, 22¾; August, 23½. No sales reported.

The receipts of crude and shipments of refined have fallen off somewhat within the past few days.

Wool Markets.

NEW YORK.—The Shipping List says the market for Foreign is very quiet, though there is a little more inquiry from Manufacturers; the transactions, however, are very light, the views of holders for the most part still being above those of buyers. Buenos Ayres Sheep Skins have been in fair demand, and some sales have been made, but mostly in small lots. The sales are 17,000 lbs. Cape at 39 cents, 20,000 lbs. Mediterranean, 15,000 lbs. Fine Buenos Ayres, 10,000 lbs. Australian, 10,000 lbs. Mestiza Pulled, on terms not made public, and 33 bales Buenos Ayres Sheep Skins at 31 cents. Domestic is without change rate. The farmers continue to ask full figures, though in some cases less prices than those ruling early in the season have been accepted. Western Fleeces may be quoted at 65@70 cts, but without sales of any extent. The business embraces 11,000 lbs. Western Fleece at 70 cts. for washed, and 50@55 for unwashed; 17,000 lbs. super 75@82; 2,000 lbs. extra 72; 2,000 lbs. No. 1 Pulled 65; 3,000 lbs. Texas 30 for burry; 4,500 lbs. Fall clip California 23 for burry; 18,000 lbs. do., and 20,000 lbs. extra, on private terms.

BOSTON.—The Shipping List says: The market remains as dull as previously noticed. Manufacturers indicate no disposition to purchase more than is wanted to keep their machinery moving. Some mills are curtailing production, and others are likely to follow, unless a favorable change soon takes place in the goods market, sufficient to warrant them in paying the prices now demanded for Wool. The transactions of the week have been 550,000 lbs. Domestic, and 220,000 lbs. Foreign—in all, 770,000 lbs. The principal movements, as noticed above, have been in Domestic Wool. Some lots of new Fleeces have been received from Ohio, and holders of old are anxious to close up all now on hand, before any considerable lots of new are received. The price of Fleeces continue to rule from 65 to 75 cts., as to condition and quality. Some lots have been sold for an advance on the latter rate, but the condition of the Wool was very superior, and is not a fair criterion of the market. A round lot of Wisconsin Fleece, the same grade of Wool that was selling at 70@72½ cts. for some weeks past, was offered at 67½; but not over 65 could be obtained. For this Wool 80 cents was offered and refused some time ago, when our market was excited and advancing. Several lots of new Ohio Fleeces, in good condition and of desirable quality, sold at 70 cts. as it ran. Any Fleece Wool, to command over 70 cts., must be very choice, as Manufacturers appear to be very indifferent about purchasing, especially when they have so large a stock of fine Foreign Wools to fall back upon. Combing Wool is in better demand than any other description, and round lots of Kentucky have been placed at 65@70 cts., which fully sustain the opening prices for this description. The movement in Pulled Wool has been very light, and in super scarcely anything has been done. Very good X Pulled has been sold at 70@72½ cts., and 75@80 are extreme prices. There has been a large movement in new Spring California Wool, but the exact price is not public. Our receipts so far of California Spring have been of very superior quality, clean and light, but it would be difficult to place the most desirable lots at over 55@58 cts. Large supplies of this wool are near at hand, and our market will soon be well stocked. The transactions in Foreign have been quite unimportant, but in prices there is no change to notice.

Iron Markets.

NEW YORK.—The Shipping List of the 12th says: Scotch Pig has arrived freely, and, though a large portion of the receipts were sold previously, there is still sufficient additional supply to cause a feeling of weakness. Manufacturers are now well stocked, and prices are rather nominal at $47@48 as to brand; 400 tons Glengarnock sold, supposed, at about $48, though 49@50 is generally asked. Eglinton may be quoted about $47 without sales. American Pig remains firm; the sales from first hands are small, at about $51@52 for No. 1, $50 for No. 2, and $45@46 for Gray Forge at Furnace, and $48 on the spot. Some small lots of No. 1 Allentown sold at $51, cash. We understand that further repurchases of some 1,500 tons Crane has been made from early buyers, but terms we could not learn. New English Rails are quiet, and we hear of no sales; we quote them $72@73, and old do. $49@50, gold. American are without change. We note sales of 3,000 tons at $85; at the works we quote them $85@90. Scrap is very dull and nominal at $50 from dock, and $55@57,50 from store. Refined Bar from store, is dull at our quotations, which are unchanged. Russia Sheet is quoted 18½ cents gold.

PHILADELPHIA, June 10.—(From Circular of Edward Samuel.)—There has been more inquiry for Pig from buyers for forge grades for July and later deliveries, and consequently less disposition on the part of sellers to make concessions. In old rails, some few sales at $49@50 gold, for future delivery—these figures are extremely low, as at present foreign prices it would be impossible to import under $51@52 gold. Manufactured Irons without change.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was falling slowly last evening, with six feet in the channel. Weather continues cloudy and warm, with every appearance at this writing of more rain. Business at the landing fair; about all that can be expected at this season of the year.

There have been no arrivals from below since the date of our last report. There are several boats en route, some of which will doubtless put in an appearance to-day.

The new steamer Key West was to have departed for Missouri River last night.

The Collier while passing through the right of Brunot on Thursday morning, struck one of her barges against a sunken barge of coke, making quite a formidable break, and causing it to take water rapidly, and but for the prompt use of syphon pumps, it would no doubt have sunk. The Collier, after the accident to her barge, swang around, and at last accounts was lying across the dam; it was hoped, however, that she would be released from her perilous condition. At last accounts it was thought that the damaged barge could be saved.

The Evan Williams is reported as having grounded five of her barges at Merriman; at last accounts they were being lightened, and may be gotten off. It was rumored that the Baltic had grounded part of her tow at Montgomery Island.

The West Virginia, arrived from Geneva, and after discharging her cargo, went on to dock for repairs. She will be off in time to leave as usual on Saturday at 3 P. M.

The Mollie Ebert will depart for St. Louis to-morrow. She will receipt freight and passengers through to all points South and West. By the way, the Mollie came through Glass House on her last up trip, with over two hundred tons of freight, on three feet three inches of water. Capt. Ebert and clerk Peppard have been steamboating together for many years, and they get along nicely together every way, until it comes to politics; in which they like a good many others disagree.

Following is a recapitulation of the coal shipments for the recent rise:

	Bushels.
Cincinnati	3,402 000
Louisville	3,118 000
New Orleans	120 000
St. Louis	278 000
Madison	130 000
Total	7,048 000

—The Louisville Courier of Wednesday says: "Captain Charles G. Schultze yesterday turned the command of the steamer Mary Houston over to his successor, Captain Charley Miller, who has been acting as chief clerk of the Houston for sometime past. Capt. Schultze has purchased the City of Cairo from parties in St. Louis, and left for that city by rail last evening, with a full crew, to take immediate command of his new boat, which he designs placing in the trade between Louisville and New Orleans.

—The following is the amount of wharfage collected at the port of Louisville for the two weeks ending Saturday, Saturday June 8, 1872:

City wharf	$638 85
Strader	637 50
Portland	184 75
Total	$1,471 10

—Capt. Wm. Killen, master of the steamboat Shamrock, filed his libel in the United States Court at Cincinnati, on Tuesday, against the steamboat R. W. Skillinger, claiming damages in the sum of $500, on account of the collision that occured at New Albany on the night of May 12, an account of which we published at the time. The Skillinger gave bond.

—The Lizzie Hopkins was sold at New Orleans on Saturday, by the United States Marshal, to Capt. Dave Campbell, of St. Louis, for $2,000. Capt. C. was the recent purchaser of the St. Charles and Southern Republic at Mobile.

—Messrs. Durfee & Peck, of the Northwest ern Transportation Company, Sioux City, have been awarded with the contract for carrying all the Indian goods and supplies on the Missouri river.

—The steamboat owners of the Carter Line have not purchased the steamer Southwestern; between the owners and the Carter Line folks there is a gap of $5,000, the former wanting $30,000.

—The Comet, St. Louis to Pittsburgh, passed Cincinnati on Tuesday, with two barges, containing 800 tons ore and 100 tons clay. Pilots, Dory Dunn and Capt. J. M. Hare.

—The lawsuit between the Richmond and Sabine, for damages caused by collision last Spring has been continued at New Orleans until the November term.

—The St. Louis Democrat says that the N. W. T. and Northern lines are bound together by a contract for five years, two of which are yet to expire.

—The Ouachita Belle has been chartered by Capt. Cannon to run in the place of the R. E. Lee, with Captain Wm. Campbell in command.

—The steamboat bill failed to get a hearing in the Senate Monday, and consequently goes over to the next session.

—Judge Cullen, of St. Louis, has decided that the recent law passed by the Missouri Legislature is valid as to St. Louis.

—The Mary Alice sunk a barge loaded with ice above Vicksburg. Total loss.

Fatal Accident.

Yesterday afternoon a fatal accident occurred in Birmingham, which resulted in the death of a lad named Bittner. The boy, who is a mute, residing on 20th street, Birmingham, was riding on a mule attached to a wagon. From some reason the team became frightened, and young Bittner was thrown to the ground, the wagon passing over him and completely tearing off the upper portion of his head. He was taken to a house in the neighborhood, and the Coroner notified of his untimely death. The man who had charge of the team drove on, and had not, at the time we write, been arrested.

A Will Made Too Late.

Yesterday, in the Register's office, was filed by John M. Kennedy, the will of the late Robert Pagan, who died at his residence on Monday in Allegheny. The deceased had no relations nearer than a half-brother, and left his entire property, which amounts to about twenty thousand dollars, to the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Orphan Asylum, on Ridge street, Allegheny, with the exception of about one thousand dollars. The deceased was very anxious, previous to his death, that the money should be applied to the above named institution, but the law requires that in order to make bequests to religious institutions the will must be made thirty days before the death of the testator, and as the will was signed but one day previous to his death, it cannot be admitted to probate. It is probable that the institution may receive the benefit of the benevolence of the deceased.

Torn to Pieces.

About eight o'clock yesterday morning, a frightful accident occurred at Huckenstein's brick works on Nunnery Hill, Third ward, Allegheny, which resulted fatally to a man named Jacob Snyder. About the time mentioned the deceased was working about the engine, which was in full motion. From some cause he fell against the fly-wheel, and when the accident was discovered, it was found out that the man's body was literally torn into small pieces. He had evidently been carried around by the wheel and ground to pieces between it and the floor. How the accident occurred is not to be known, as no one witnessed the occurrence.

Coroner West was summoned and held an inquest—a verdict of accidental death being returned. The deceased had been in the employ of Mr. Huckenstein about nine months as engineer, was sixty-nine years of age, and leaves a widow and nine children. He resided in the neighborhood of the brick works.

Meeting of the Fire Commission.

The first meeting of the Fire Commission in the new City Hall, was held on Wednesday afternoon, President Hays in the Chair.

Chief Engineer White reported twenty-five fires during May. He suggested that the firemen should be supplied with lighter clothing during the summer, and that the Neptune engine be repaired. Adopted.

Mr. Fullwood reported the fire alarm telegraph to be in good working order. The wires will be thoroughly overhauled this summer. They hope to move into the new office in a few days. Report adopted.

The report of the Monthly Committee, stating that they had received bills to the amount of $7,461.24; that the principal amount of this indebtedness was for the repairs in the Neptune Engine house, was read, received, and warrants ordered to be drawn for the amount. The Committee also presented recommendations for the purchase of a lot on Forty-fourth street, for an engine house, and the sale of the old Lawrenceville house, were presented and adopted.

On motion, a vote of thanks was tendered to President Hays for the very able manner in which he has performed the duties devolving upon him. Adjourned.

THE STACKS MURDER.

Letter from the Murdered Man's Father.

Mayor Blackmore has received the following letter from Thomas Stacks, the father of John Stacks, deceased, in reply to a letter informing him of the murder of his son:

DAUGH, 29th May, 1872.—Honored Sir: I, Thomas Stacks, the bereaved father of the murdered John Stacks, humbly request you will excuse the late day I take in requesting you to let me know if the cowardly assassins of my dearest son have been apprehended—for cowards they were. For if my soldier got a fair fight for his life I would not repine, though he has been the only means of support to me.

Your Honor's compliance will oblige your humble servant, THOMAS STACKS,
Daugh Lisland, County Kerry, Ireland.

FIRE IN BIRMINGHAM.

A Glass Factory Burned to the Ground—The Losses and Insurance.

Shortly before six o'clock last evening a fire broke out in the glass factory of Ripley & Co., on Tenth street near Carson street, Birmingham. The first person to discover that the factory was on fire was George Bossler, the furnace man. He found that the flames had originated among a number of saltpetre bags which had been thrown under the furnace. These being overheated, had by spontaneous combustion started into flames. Mr. Bossler alarmed at the burning bags threw upon them several buckets of water, which instead of putting out the fire seemed to more increase the virulence of the flames. The conflagration spread with great rapidity, and in less than half an hour the entire factory was burned to the ground. The losses amount to about $17,000, made up as follows: on building, $5,000; on stock, $10,000; and on tools about $2,000. The loss is fully covered by insurance, divided between eastern and home companies. The warehouse adjoining and the store house for manufactured goods were fortunately saved.

The Duquesne engine went over the river to assist in staying the flames, and did good service. Three or four frame houses in the neighborhood caught fire from the flying sparks, but owing to the promptitude of the department, sustained no injury.

DOUBLE FATALITY.

Two Men Killed Instantly at Park Brothers & Co.'s Steel Works.

Shortly before ten o'clock yesterday morning, a fatal accident, resulting in the death of two men, occurred at the steel works of Park Brothers & Co. It appears that workmen were engaged at a lathe, raising a plate by means of jack screws. The plate weighed nearly eight tons. When it had been lifted some feet, owing to negligence in not properly supporting it by blocks, it slipped off the screw heads and fell with crushing force to the ground. No warning of the fall was given, and it descended upon two men who were working beneath it. The immense mass fell upon the heads and shoulders of these unfortunates, and they were instantly crushed to the ground, and as a consequence met instant death. One of these men was Mr. Fred. Kramer, assistant millright, aged only twenty-seven yerrs. He resided in Allegheny, was married, and leaves a child as well as a wife to mourn his terrible and sudden death. The other was Richard D. Maxwell, also a resident of Allegheny, and but twenty-four years of age. He was employed as a machinist and was one of the most capable in the mill. He was married and leaves a wife and two children. Another man named John Ralph was also injured slightly.

When the immense weight was removed a fearful sight was presented, the heads of both the killed men having been crushed into a pulp. The bodies were removed to the office of the mill. Coroner West held an inquest last evening and a verdict of accidental death was returned.

DEATH IN A CELL.

A Prisoner Found Dead in the Lock-up—A Sad Story.

On Wednesday morning Officer Mackrell took to the Central Station House a young man whom he had found intoxicated in the street. The prisoner was so much under the influence of liquor that he had to be taken to the lock-up in a wagon. He gave his name as J. J. Reynolds. At Mayor Blackmore's afternoon hearing, the prisoner was still so drunk that his case was allowed to go over till yesterday morning. On Wednesday evening he still appeared to be drunk, and he had stripped off his clothing. About three o'clock yesterday morning, Captain Reed, thinking he must be cold, went into the cell, when he found Reynolds sitting motionless in a corner. Failing to arouse him by calling to him, the Captain placed his hand upon him, when he was horrified to find the man cold and stiff in death. A physician was called, who stated that he must have been dead some time.

Yesterday morning the body was taken to the undertaking establishment of Louis Beinhauer, on Grant street, where the deceased was recognized by Mr. W. Long, Superintendent of the Young Men's Home, as James M. Meads, a young man who had been an inmate of the Home since May 6th, 1871. His history, so far as known, is a sad one and full of warning. It appears that sometime previous to being brought to the home, the young man had come to the city from Columbus, Ohio, and had obtained a situation here as book-keeper. He was addicted to drink, however, and before very long went on a prolonged and terrible "spree," which deprived him of his situation. He continued his debauch for some time, and at the time stated was brought, in a destitute condition, to the Home.

Here he soon became sober and another situation was obtained for him. About three weeks since he began to drink again, and on Tuesday left the house to go to his place of business. He did not however go there but commenced another "spree."

The deceased was a young man and is supposed to have been of good family. It is believed his relatives reside in Massachusetts. Coroner West held an inquest at Beinhauer's establishment last vening.

THE STACKS MURDER.

The Trial Concluded.

Bender's Character—Golden Offered as a Witness—Application Refused—Arguments of Counsel—The Judge's Charge.

Yesterday was the fourth day of the trial of Henry Bender for the murder of policeman John Stacks. Court opened at nine o'clock, with Judges Sterrett and Stowe upon the bench.

THE DEFENCE CONTINUED.

The defence called a number of witnesses to prove the good character of the defendant. Mayor Blackmore, Dr. Tristain Brown, John C. Mattern, C. F. Allers, J. C. Buffum, J. G. Siebeneck, Esq., Fred Edwards, Justice E. G. Krehan and Adam Reineman were called and testified that Bender had a good character in the community for peace and good order.

James S. Patterson, re-called—Know Bender's character; his reputation for peace and good order is very good.

Cross-examined—He has an excitable and violent temper at times; know that he frequently came to the Mayor's office to have parties arrested who would not pay their bills; remember the instances very well; on those occasions he was very much excited when he came into the office.

Robert Carson, A. S. Bell, Esq., Wm. Ruffles, Dr. C. King, Daniel Kinzer, Archibald McFarland, were called and testified to the reputation of Bender in the community for peace and good order.

GOLDEN OFFERED AS A WITNESS.

Mr. Marshall proposed to call Samuel Golden as a witness for the defence.

Mr. Swoope objected on the ground that Golden was jointly identified with Bender, and was therefore an incompetent witness.

The Court over-ruled the offer.

J. H. Campbell, recalled—On the night of the Stacks' murder think Mr. Bender wore slippers or sandals, although I didn't look at his feet.

Cross-examined—He made pretty good time going out of the saloon.

The defence here rested.

Mr. Swoope, in reply to the Court, said the prosecution had nothing further to offer, as there was nothing to rebut.

SUMMING UP.

The testimony being concluded, it was agreed between counsels that too summing up speeches should be made on both sides. Mr. Coyle was to commence on the part of the prosecutor, to be followed by Messrs. Cohen and Marshall for the defense, U. S. District Attorney Swoope making the final argument on the part of the Commonwealth.

MR. COYLE'S ADDRESS.

Mr. Coyle then proceeded with the argument. He claimed that the evidence adduced by the Commonwealth fully established the fact that Stacks was not in Bender's saloon the night he was murdered; that the man who left the saloon without paying for the oysters was not Stacks, the evidence of several witnesses proving this fact. He also contended that the evidence showed conclusively that Bender struck the fatal blow, and the weapon used, according to the testimony of physicians, was an oyster knife. The theory upon which the gentleman urged was that when Bender ran out of the house after the man who failed to pay for oysters, Stacks ran over from Mattern's corner, in answer to Bender's call for police, as testified by one of the witnesses. That Stacks excited Bender's wrath by releasing the man from his grasp, and that then Bender gave the fatal blow with the knife.

MR. COHEN'S ARGUMENT.

Josiah Cohen, Esq., followed on the part of the defence. He said he approached the argument with some diffidence; first, because of the immensity of the responsibilities of the case, and secondly, because it was the first murder case in which he had been engaged. He said he would endeavor to prove to the best of his ability, from the evidence adduced, that Bender was not the murderer, but that the dark deed, which deserved sure and swift punishment, was perpetrated by another. He then proceeded to review the testimony adduced by the prosecution, and claimed that while no evidence had been offered by the defense, that of the Commonwealth was so contradictory as to be utterly unreliable. He argued that it was impossible for Bender to have used the knife as a weapon, and that such a weapon could not have made such a wound. He argued, too, that the difference between the size of Bender and Stacks was so great as to render it improbable that he could have inflicted the blow.

Mr. Cohen's argument lasted two hours, and was both eloquent and interesting. During its delivery the persons present more than once attempted to applaud but such demonstrations were quickly suppressed by the tip-staves.

Court then took a recess till two o'clock.

Afternoon Session.

At the commencement of the afternoon session, Thomas M. Marshall, Esq., was summed up for the defense. He denied altogether that the theory of the prosecution had been sustained and asserted that the only true theory of the case was that which he had marked out in his opening address. He dwelt with great bitterness upon the testimony of Kocher, and claimed that his testimony had been contradicted in almost every particular by his companion Vogle. The testimony of Lieutenant Hazen was referred to and an attempt made to explain it away upon the ground that the conversation overheard was misunderstood. The failure of the commonwealth to place Golden on the stand, was severely criticised, as he was the only other eye witness of the occurence. The speaker also dwelt at some length upon the good character which the defense had proved Bender had possessed, and concluded with a touching appeal on behalf of the prisoner's wife and family.

Mr. Swoope then closed the case for the Commonwealth. His address was one of the most logical and eloquent ever delivered in the Criminal Court room. He divided his address—the proof of the murder of Stacks; who committed the murder, and the degree of the murder committed. The learned gentleman gave a very exhaustive resume of the testimony; claiming that the main facts as claimed by the prosecution had been fully proven, and that whatever contradiction existed in the evidence were upon points of minor interest. Referring to the testimony of Kocher, he claimed that other witnesses had unmistakably corroborated him. The defense had actually offered no evidence. From the opening speech of the opposing counsel he had expected a good deal, but had been disappointed. The only testimony they had introduced was of good character, and this was the weakest of all kinds of defense.

The honorable gentleman spoke for nearly two hours. The Court-room was at the time densely crowded, most of the persons present having come for the special purpose of hearing Mr. Swoope's address. During its delivery the most perfect stillness reigned. The speech was one of the gentleman's best efforts, and was full of earnest eloquence.

At the close of District Attorney Swoope's address, Court adjourned at half-past 7 o'clock.

JUDGE STERRETT'S CHARGE.

Court reassembled at a little before 8 o'clock when Judge Sterrett proceeded to charge the jury.

The learned Judge commenced by laying down the principles of law governing the case and read at length from Judge Agnew in definition of the crime of murder and the various degrees thereof. He then reviewed at some length the testimony and the theory of the prosecution and reminded the jury that the Commonwealth did not ask a conviction for murder in the first degree. After instructing the jury to acquit if they had a reasonable doubt as to the defendant's guilt and defining what a reasonable doubt was. His Honor read the following requests put in by the defendant's counsel and gave the accompanying decisions upon them:

The Court is respectfully requested to charge:

First—That when there is a reasonable doubt as to any material fact either as to the unlawful killing or the identity of the party killing, it is the duty of the jury to acquit.

Second—That it is not safe to convict a party charged with a criminal offence upon the testimony of an accomplice, unless the accomplice is corroborated as to the identity of the party charged with the unlawful killing.

Third—That the credibility of each witness is solely for the jury, and in the exercise of their best judgment they have a right to discard the testimony of any and every witness upon whose testimony they cannot conscientiously rely.

Fourth—That when it is certain that one of two or more persons did commit a murder, but the evidence leaves a reasonable doubt in the minds of the jury as to which one, it is the duty of the jury to acquit.

Fifth—The Commonwealth is bound to prove by satisfactory legal evidence every material fact necessary to establish the guilt of the defendant, and if the jury have a reasonable doubt as to the proof of any such material fact, it is their duty to acquit.

Sixth—That the keeping back or not producing evidence within the power of the Commonwealth, is a fact from which the jury have a right to infer that the evidence would be against the Commonwealth.

Seventh—That the proof of good character by a party charged with crime is a fact from which a jury may raise a reasonable doubt and acquit the prisoner.

Answers of the Court to points submitted by the defendant's counsel:

First. This point is affirmed. In deciding upon the case, or upon any material part of it, it is the duty of the jury to give the defendant the benefit of any reasonable doubt, arising out of the evidence, which prevents them from coming to a satisfactory conclusion. But this doubt must arise fairly out of the evidence, and not be merely fancied or conjured up. A jury must not raise a mere fanciful or ingenious doubt to escape the consequences of an unpleasant verdict. It must be an honest, conscientious doubt—such a difficulty as fairly strikes a conscientious mind and clouds the judgment. If the mind be fairly satisfied of a fact, on the evidence—as much as would induce a man of reasonable firmness and judgment to take the fact as true, and to act upon it in a matter of importance to himself, it would be sufficient to rest a verdict upon.

Second.—This point is affirmed with this explanation and qualification. The jury may convict on the testimony of an accomplice alone, but it is safer not to convict upon such testimony unless it is corroborated in material points by other testimony in the case.

The testimony of an accomplice should be received and acted upon with great care and caution by the jury. He is a competent witness, but his credibility is for the jury. The object in admitting the evidence of accomplices is in order to effect the discovery and punishment of crimes which cannot be found against offenders without the aid of such testimony. In order to prevent the failure of justice recourse is had to the evidence of accomplices.

The preponderance of authority in this country is, that a jury may convict a prisoner on the testimony of an accomplice alone, though the court, in its discretion, may advise them to acquit unless such testimony is corroborated in material points. We deem this the safer and more merciful rule, and in this case advise you not to convict on the testimony of the witness Kocher, unless you find that it is corroborated in some material points by other testimony. It is claimed by the commonwealth, in this case, that such corroboration is to be found in the evidence before you. The truthfulness of Kocher's testimony is a matter entirely for your consideration.

Third.—This point is affirmed. In answer to the first point we have already explained what is meant by a reasonable doubt.

Fourth.—This point is affirmed.

Fifth.—This point is affirmed.

Sixth—As an abstract proposition this point is correct; but there is nothing before us to show that the Commonwealth has kept back or refused to produce evidence within its power. Reference has been made, on the argument, to the refusal of the Commonwealth to enter a nolle prosequi as to Samuel Golden so as to permit him to be called as a witness. Golden is jointly indicted with the defendant now on trial, and it is the right of the District Attorney, in the exercise of his judgment, to refuse to enter a nolle prosequi as to him; and we are bound to presume that his judgment has been judiciously and properly exercised, and no inference against the Commonwealth should be drawn from such refusal.

Seventh—Evidence of previous good character or general reputation for peace and good order is always admissible on the part of the defendant in cases like the present, and should be considered by the jury in connection with all the other evidence before them; and if on the whole evidence the jury are satisfied, beyond a reasonable doubt, as to the defendant's guilt it is their duty to say so. On the other hand if they entertain a reasonable doubt as to his guilt he is entitled to the benefit of such doubt. It is sometimes said that good character is not to be considered except where a doubt exists, but as we have said it should be considered and weighed by the jury in connection with all the other evidence, and in some cases may be of such worth as to raise of itself the doubt which leads to an acquittal. Its precise weight in each case is a question like all other facts, exclusively for the jury.

After this charge the jury retired to consider a verdict and at the time of going to press had not returned with a verdict.

THE corner stone of the new Methodist colored church was laid at Uniontown, Pa., on last Sabbath, Rev. Dr. N. H. Williams and others officiating. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, the attendance was very large. A great many persons from Brownsville, Mt. Pleasant and George Creek congregations were present and assisted in making the occasion one long to be remembered. Dr. Williams is doing good work at Uniontown in the cause of Christ.

THE Kittanning Republican, pays the following tribute to our home organizations:

The Lincoln Club, of Pittsburgh, attended the Philadelphia Convention, one hundred and fifty stong, and were accompanied by the celebrated Great Western Band. By their gentlemanly deportment, good conduct, and creditable appearance, the club attracted universal attention. The Great Westen Band also attracted great attention, and furnished most excellent music, eclipsing the celebrated Marine Band, of Washington, which was also present. The Lincoln club will prove a valuable auxiliary during the approaching campaign, and will do good service

ALMOST FORGOTTEN.

An Important Consideration.

It seems to us that our friends of the Homestead Bank have let the conceded merits of North Homestead somewhat obscure, the very idea which, in our judgment, embodies the great merit of Homestead Bank itself, and to which it certainly owes much of its past success. They have not sufficiently educated the public in regard to the beneficent feature of "Life Insurance for the mortgage debt" which is given without charge to purchasers of lots.

A very brief comparison of the most popular form of insurance—the endowment—with that of the Homestead Bank will make it plain to every one that the latter is a more substantial endowment than the best paper policy ever issued by the best life insurance company in the world.

For example, in the "National," (Jay Cook's) which is probably one of the best and fairest companies that make positive contracts—so much insurance for so much money—an endowment at the age of 40 years for $2,000, payable in 10 years, costs $177.30 per annum. If you live till the endowment matures, you will have paid $1,773, and will get $227 of interest, or 2¾ per cent. per annum for the use of your money! Now suppose you invest an equal sum annually in real estate bought on the Homestead plan, what is the relative situation? In that case you get immediate possession of your property—a deed in fee simple—instead of the promise of a company that may or may not be liable ten years hence to redeem its promise. Secondly, you have the use of your property while paying for it, and in case of your death you know that your family have possession of the sum and substance of your insurance. Thirdly—If you have made a fortunate selection, ten years is long enough for its value to be quadrupled, and if the increase is less than the average, it must more than double in that time, but suppose it does no more, you have for your $1,173 a property worth $3,546, a gain of $1,173, or 20 per cent. per annum, against a gain of $227 or 2¾ per cent. by the best "endowment policy" you can get elsewhere! And if you count the use of your property as worth but 5 per cent. per annum on its cost, your count will show a total gain of $2,659, or 30 per cent. per annum on the investment—over ten times the amount to be made by the usual endowment.

Now if half be true that has been said in favor of North Homestead (and they say that not only is it all true, but that the half has not been told), no one can doubt that values there must double in the next ten years, and we maintain that the Homestead folks have not sufficiently presented their infinitely better system of endowment as an investment to the young men of the city. We advise all who are getting but 2¾ per cent. for their money, to put in real estate what we shall call the "Homestead Bank Endowment Plan."

Amusements.

PITTSBURGH OPERA HOUSE.—Manning's Minstrels continue to draw full audiences at this house and deservedly so too. There are few minstrel companies in this country which can boast of so much genuine talent as Manning's. In addition to a magnificent quartette, the singing of which cannot be surpassed, there are in the company a number of other artists, who in their respective lines are unapproachable. The banjo playing of Mr. Hale, the songs and dances of McKee and Rogers and the eccentricities of Manning himself, are enough to afford a good evening's amusement if nothing more were offered. The entertainments at the Opera House are such as should secure large audiences, and we are glad the Company is meeting with the public support it so richly deserves.

CARNCROSS & DIXEY.—To say that the Academy of Music was crowded last night, would be but inadequate to state the condition of the auditorium at this pleasant theatre, for the house was really jammed. The public of this city will always turn out en masse when a really excellent performance is offered them, and this fact explains the "jam." No minstrel troupe in this country can furnish a more acceptable programme than can Carncross & Dixey, and the Pittsburgh people know it. The performances last night were excellent and of a meritorious and popular character. To-night another excellent bill will be presented.

In case that any sewer constructed by him of cement pipes proving a failure he will replace the same without cost to the city, and that the committee had concluded to allow Mr. Dunn to construct the Arch street sewer of that pipe. The committee reported adversely to granting the petition for a sewer in Forest street, Troy Hill, also petition for change of grade of Market street; also that they would have objection to the pavement in front of the school house.

Remonstrance against the paving of Wayne street. Referred.

On motion adjourned.

The Reason

That the one price system is rigidly adhered to in all cases at Wm. Fleming & Co.'s hat emporium, No. 139 Wood street, is because all goods at that establishment have already been marked down to the lowest possible figures, which will be found on examination below those of any other house in the city.

ALTOONA.

Pennsylvania Grand Lodge of I. O. G. T.

[Correspondence Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ALTOONA, PA., June 11, 1872.

Evening Session.—Met at 7:30 o'clock. Opened with prayer. Ordered that the officers of Grand Lodge be elected to-morrow at 3 P. M.

The Committee on fraternal greetings to the State S. S. Convention reported as follows:

ALTOONA, June 11, 1872.

To the State S. S. Convention now in session in the city of Pittsburgh:

The Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania I. O. of G. T., sends Christian greeting, with congratulations upon the increased consideration given to Temperance as part of Sunday School instruction. Thankful for the success of the temperance cause in the past, we ask your continued prayers for the suppression of the traffic in intoxicating drinks, chief foe of the Evangelist and obstruction to temperance and Sunday School work. Signed, S. B. CHASE, Grand W. C. Templar.

The Committee on Finance reported, showing a healthy condition of this important department of the organization. The finances have been in good hands.

Some new measures were suggested, in order to still further improve the finances. The report was adopted.

The delegates to the R. W. Grand Lodge, reported the Order at large in an unprecedented prosperous condition, and is extending itself over the world as rapidly as could be expected. The next R. W. Grand lodge will meet at London, England, in May 1873.

Adjourned by benediction.

SECOND DAY'S SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, June 12, 1872.

Grand Lodge met at 9 A. M. S. B. Chase, G. W. C. Templar in the Chair. Opened with religious devotions. Minutes of last night's session read and approved.

A number of persons were put in nomination for R. W. G. Lodge officers to be elected at 3 P. M.

Places for holding the next session of the body. The above was ordered to be printed—five hundred copies.

The committee on the relation to the Keystone Good Templar to the Order reported, suggesting the continuation of the lease to Hendrickson & Cavna.

After some miscellaneous business, calling out considerable discussion, they adjourned for dinner.

Lodge convened at 1:30 p. m. Opened with singing and prayer. Minutes of morning session read and adopted.

Ordered, that the salary of G. W. Chief Templar for the ensuing year shall be $1,000.

The Grand Lodge by vote donated $150 to Somerset Lodge, they having been burned out in the great fire some time ago; also recommending them to the favorable consideration of the subordinate lodges throughout the State; also donating to Somerset Lodge all debts and dues for six months to come.

At 3 p. m., Grand Lodge proceeded with the election of officers for the ensuing year, resulting as follows:

G. W. C. T.—S. B. Chase.
G. W. Recorder—H. D. McGaw.
G. W. V. T.—Miss Saidie Jackson.
G. W. Sec.—Miss L. E. Wright.
G. W. Treas.—S. S. King.

On motion $100 were voted to the Local Option Defense Fund of Philadelphia.

The following was adopted, after thorough discussion, by a hearty vote:

WHEREAS, It is an admitted fact that Temperance newspapers as such are limited in their usefulness in creating new advocates of Total Abstinence by being confined for the most part to those already in active sympathy with the doctrine; therefore

Resolved, That we deem it of the highest importance to secure from all walks of life a larger number of readers to that class of literature which specially explains, defends and maintains the aims and needs of the Temperance movement.

To this end the Grand Lodge hereby

Resolved, That the Executive Committee inaugurate a "Bureau of Temperance Instruction," appertaining to which department shall be the following duties:

1. To write, have written, or select brief articles on the general subject of Temperance. Said articles to contain no personal criticisms of individuals, but to be prepared with a view of exciting thoughtful attention to the grave issues involved in the overthrow of the drinking customs of society, and of carrying instruction among the masses self-debarred from light on the subject.

2. That printed copies of such approved articles be sent to editors of public journals throughout the State, with a request for their publication in the reading columns of their several papers—care being taken to diversify the subject matter as much as possible, to avoid an objection of repetition of the same subject in localities where a number of papers are simultaneously published.

3. That in making this request from editors, a circular be addressed them setting forth that our aim will be to avoid everything that will bring them personally in conflict with the prejudices of their readers; and that it will be one constant purpose to offer them only such matter as by its literary merit would commend it to their judgment as desirable reading for all their subscribers, however little they may sympathise with, or strongly oppose the principle of total abstinence, and that under no circumstance will the articles offered contain anything in the most remote degree which could be construed as an advertisement of any sort.

4. That the cost of the conduct of said Bureau for one year, shall not exceed ———, which shall include service, postage, printing or duplicating copies of articles for transmission.

5. A report shall be made at next session of this body, giving honorable mention of those papers which have acceded to our request, with the number of articles inserted, as well as a detailed exhibit of the outlays required in transacting the business of the "Bureau."

6. That no compesation for time be allowed the manager of the Bureau, but that necessary expenses be paid if permitted to be contracted, and after being audited, by the Executive Committee.

ARGUMENT.

The Temperance Press reach less than fifty thousand readers in Pennsylvania per week, of this number seven-tenths are in active sympathy with the principles advocated.

The Secular Press reach 1,000,000 readers every sixty days. They publish temperance articles rarely. Their readers represent that solidity of character and high social position which are recognized as the governing forces of society. Many favor temperance without light—many oppose temperance for want of light.

It could not detract from the usefulness and dignity of any newspaper to publish occasionally a straight-out Temperance article. It would be a blessing for many to read such articles often.

The Press of to-day is wielded by apt men, not so circumscribed as to deny the good which indirectly would follow their kindness in helping people to think about this grave matter.

It will create a healthy appetite for reading Temperance literature, and prove in the end a blessing to every publisher of a Temperance book or newspaper, and necessarily advance the good cause.

Adjourned to meet at 9 A. M. to-morrow. C.

A REMARKABLE RUNAWAY.

Six Persons Injured.

A very remarkable runaway occurred in East Birmingham on Wednesday afternoon, by which no less than six persons were injured, two of whom may be fatally hurt.

Mr. Charles Alderbrand was driving his wagon along Sarah street, when his horse became frightened and ran off. He was thrown out violently on his head, bruising him very severely. The horse continued in his mad career and ran over a little child of Mrs. Rivers, injuring it so severely that it is feared it cannot live.

Mrs. McCoy, who was standing on the street with her baby in her arms, was the next victim. She threw her child to one side and it fell down a cellar, injuring it fatally. The mother herself was run over and badly hurt. Mrs. Weber was next run over, though not seriously injured. She was so badly frightened that she gave premature birth to a child. She is now lying in a very precarious condition.

Will be sold at Auction, 70 acres of Land, divided into about 200 Building Lots, each 50 by 100 feet, fronting on fine wide streets, at the Borough of Wheatland, a rising and prosperous place on the Erie and Pittsburgh Railroad, 68 miles north of Pittsburgh, and 15 miles north of New Castle.

The large Rolling and Rail Mills of James Wood, Sons & Co., employing over 800 men, are located at this point, which, with other manufacturing industries, promise to make this a great business place.

These Lots occupy the finest ground adjoining the Borough, are about 1,200 feet from the Rolling Mills, possess the finest, pure soft water springs, and command very fine views of the surrounding country. Choice Fruits are planted over the grounds.

A large Public Park is reserved for the common benefit of Lot holders.

Two Lots will be reserved for the erec Churches. Clear deeds for these will be given free.

An inspection of the plan will satisfy any one that a fine field is here opened up for enterprise.

The rapid growth of Wheatland, and the substantial basis of its prosperity, should incite special attention to this sale of Lots.

Now is the time to settle here. When improvements increase Property will advance in price. A Two Story Dwelling House is erected on one of the Lots, which will be sold at the same time.

A Free Excursion Train will leave Pittsburgh at 7 o'clock on the morning of the sale, which will convey passengers from thence and intermediate stations and return, free of charge.

Dinner will be provided at noon. Go and see the present and prospective advantages likely to arise from settlement in Wheatland. Terms of sale—one-fourth cash; balance in three yearly payments. $20 cash on each Lot required at the time of sale.

Plans will be sent on application to GEO. F. DIHM, 157 Wood street, Pittsburgh, or
